Name: Den DeVille

Age: 24

Location: Farnham Surrey

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

Hello, my name is Den DeVille and I'm from Grimsby 'up tu north!' but now I live 'doooown souff', in a lovely little town called Farnham. I started modelling when I was 18, but I have been a wee poser all my life, I love fashion and would always look in magazines and admire the photography, styling, make up and everything, I knew one day I would succeed and become one of those models. And here I am!:D

How would you describe your style?

My style is UNIQUE with a sexy punky attitude with a touch of quirkiness and a twist of good girl gone bad...or so I'd like to think.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

Splendid, Salleh Sparrow is one incredible woman, I love her work and she is such a beautiful and talented genius, the shoot was very relaxed and fun. We shot at the most beautiful location on a very sunny and hot day. Just perfect!

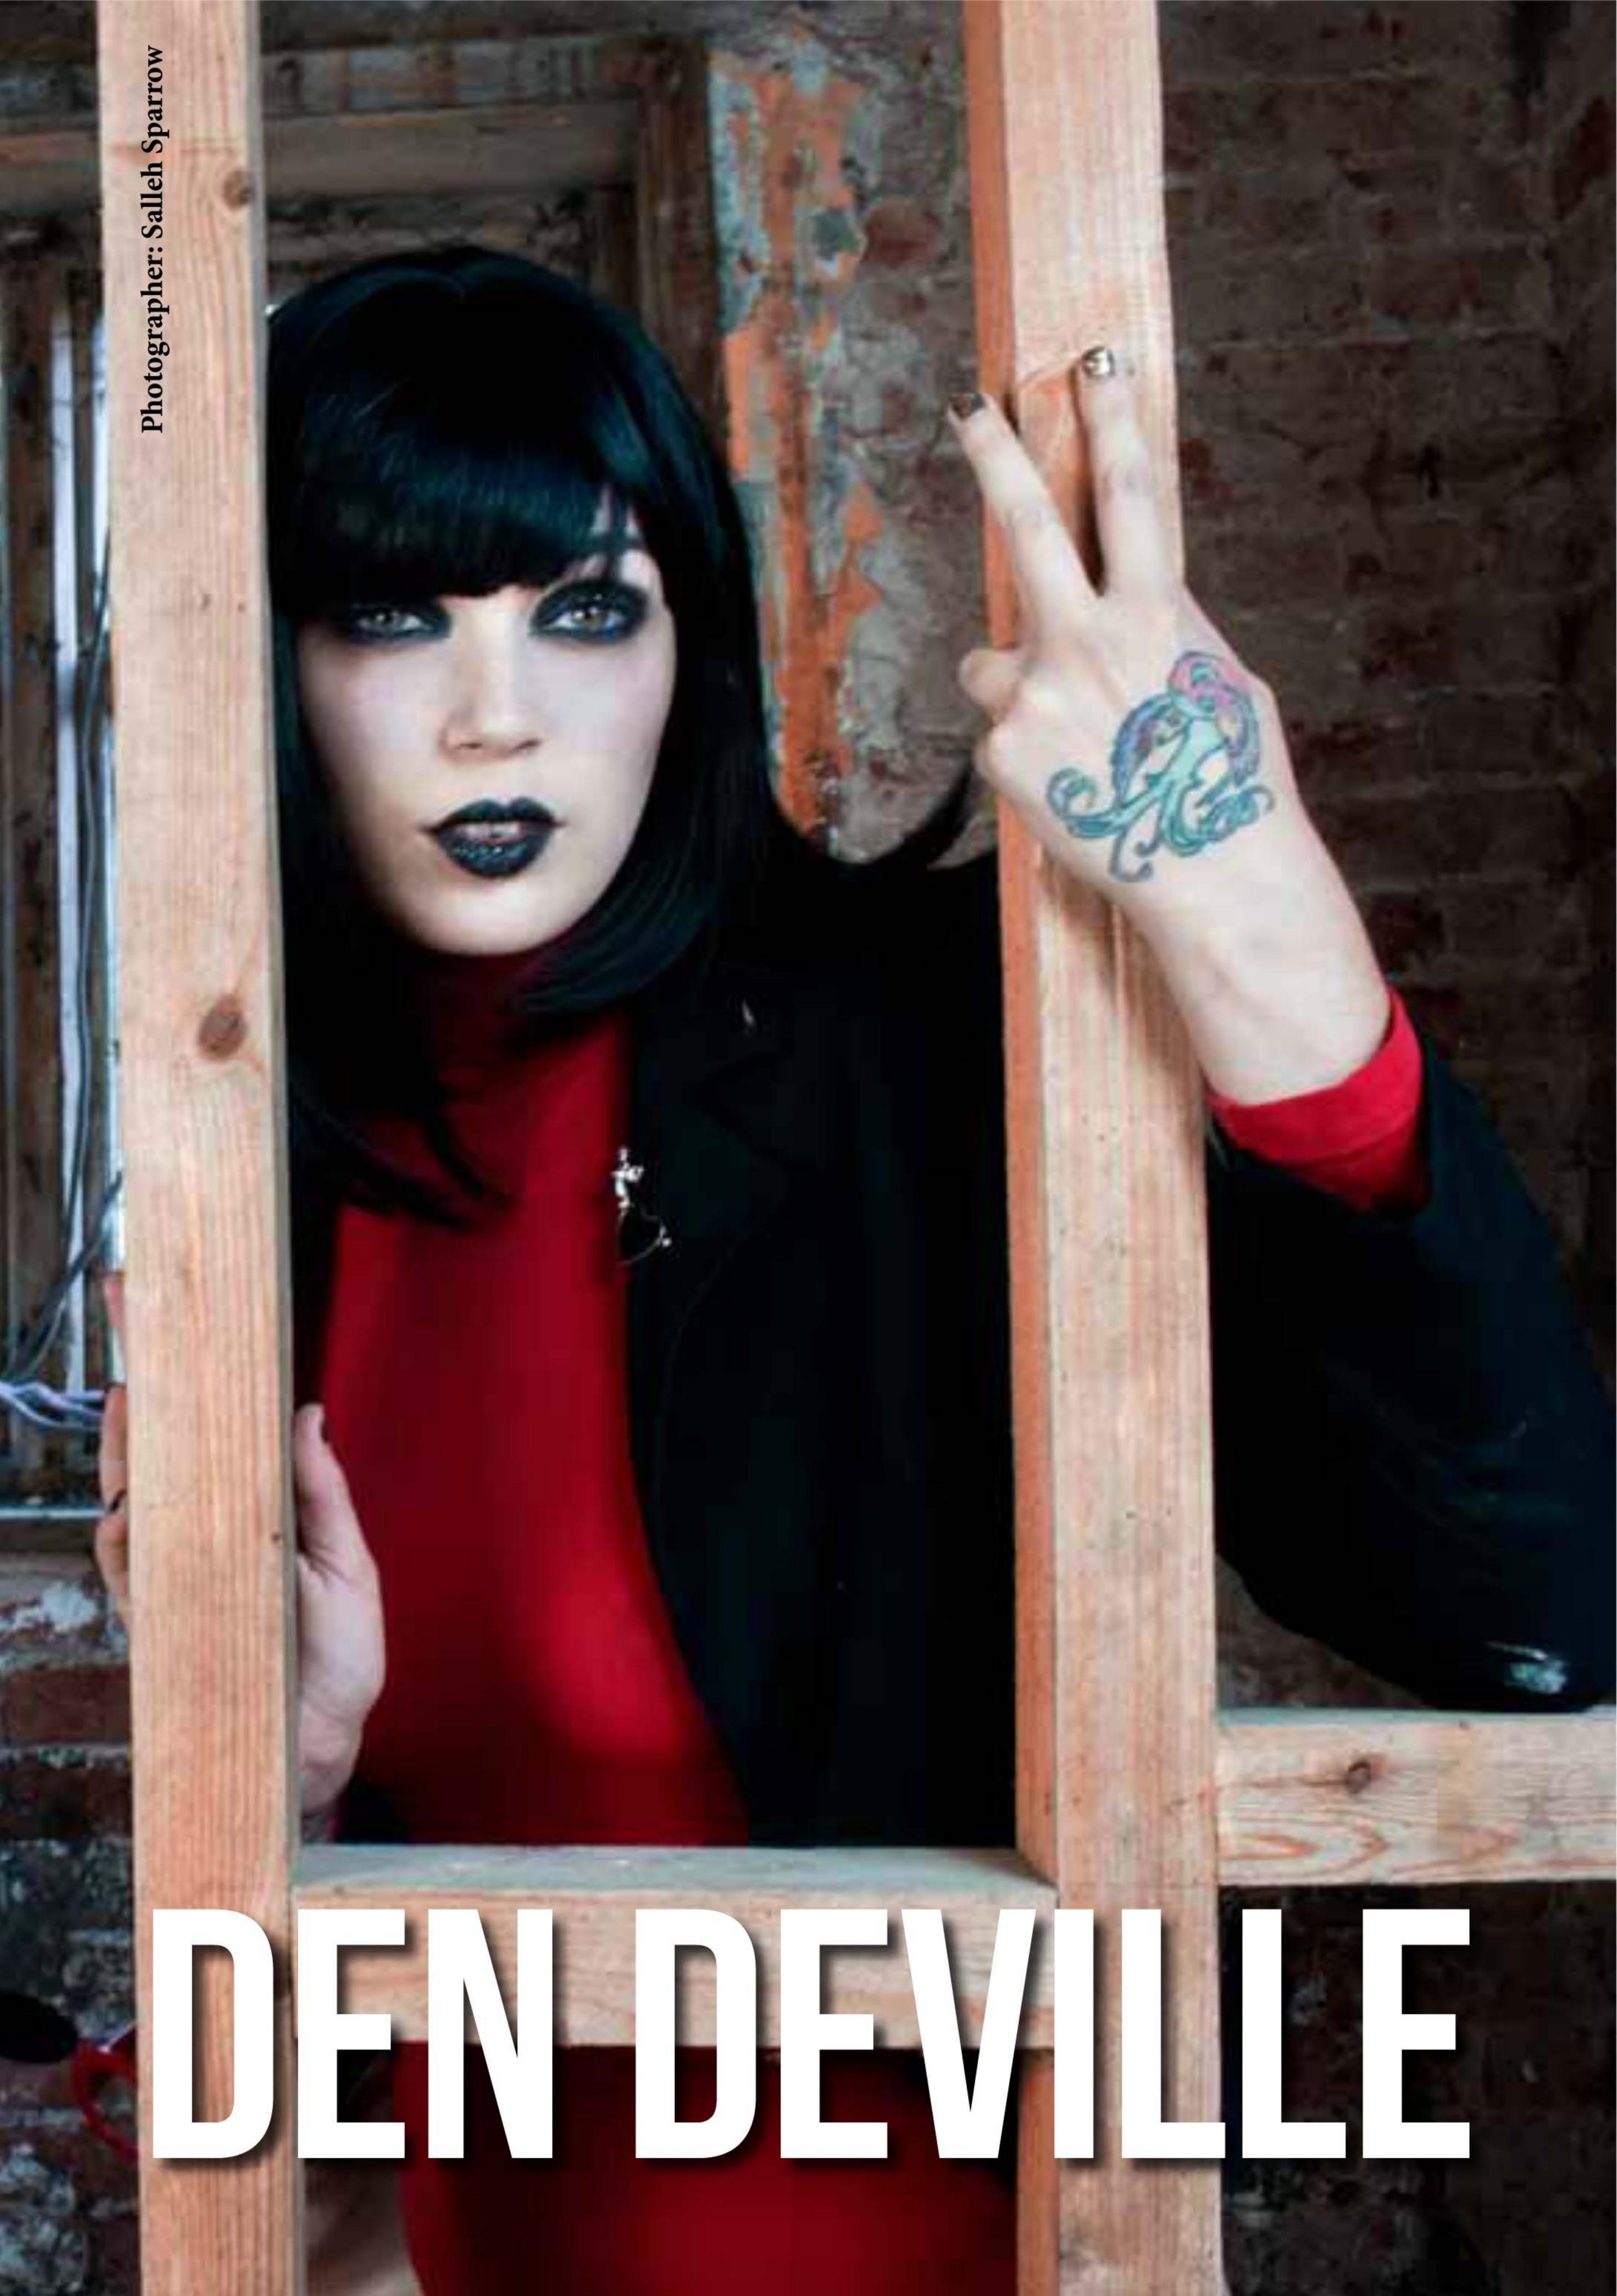

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

Posing with my mannequin (her name being Victorious Clitorious, ha) she was a delight to work with and made us both laugh several times. Also the journey to and from the shoot was hilarious, having a naked mannequin strapped up in the backseat staring out at passes by made it a very funny journey indeed, people's shocked faces was a picture I'll never forget.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Other than posing for the camera my main passion in life is tattooing, I have been a tattoo artist for 5 years now and I absolutely love it. There is nothing more rewarding then seeing someone in love with their new tattoo, marking people's bodies for life and seeing my art living and breathing is an incredible feeling. Also with my artistic flare I love to paint and create and customize clothing. I too enjoy a good party and seeing live music. Life is worth living. so live it!

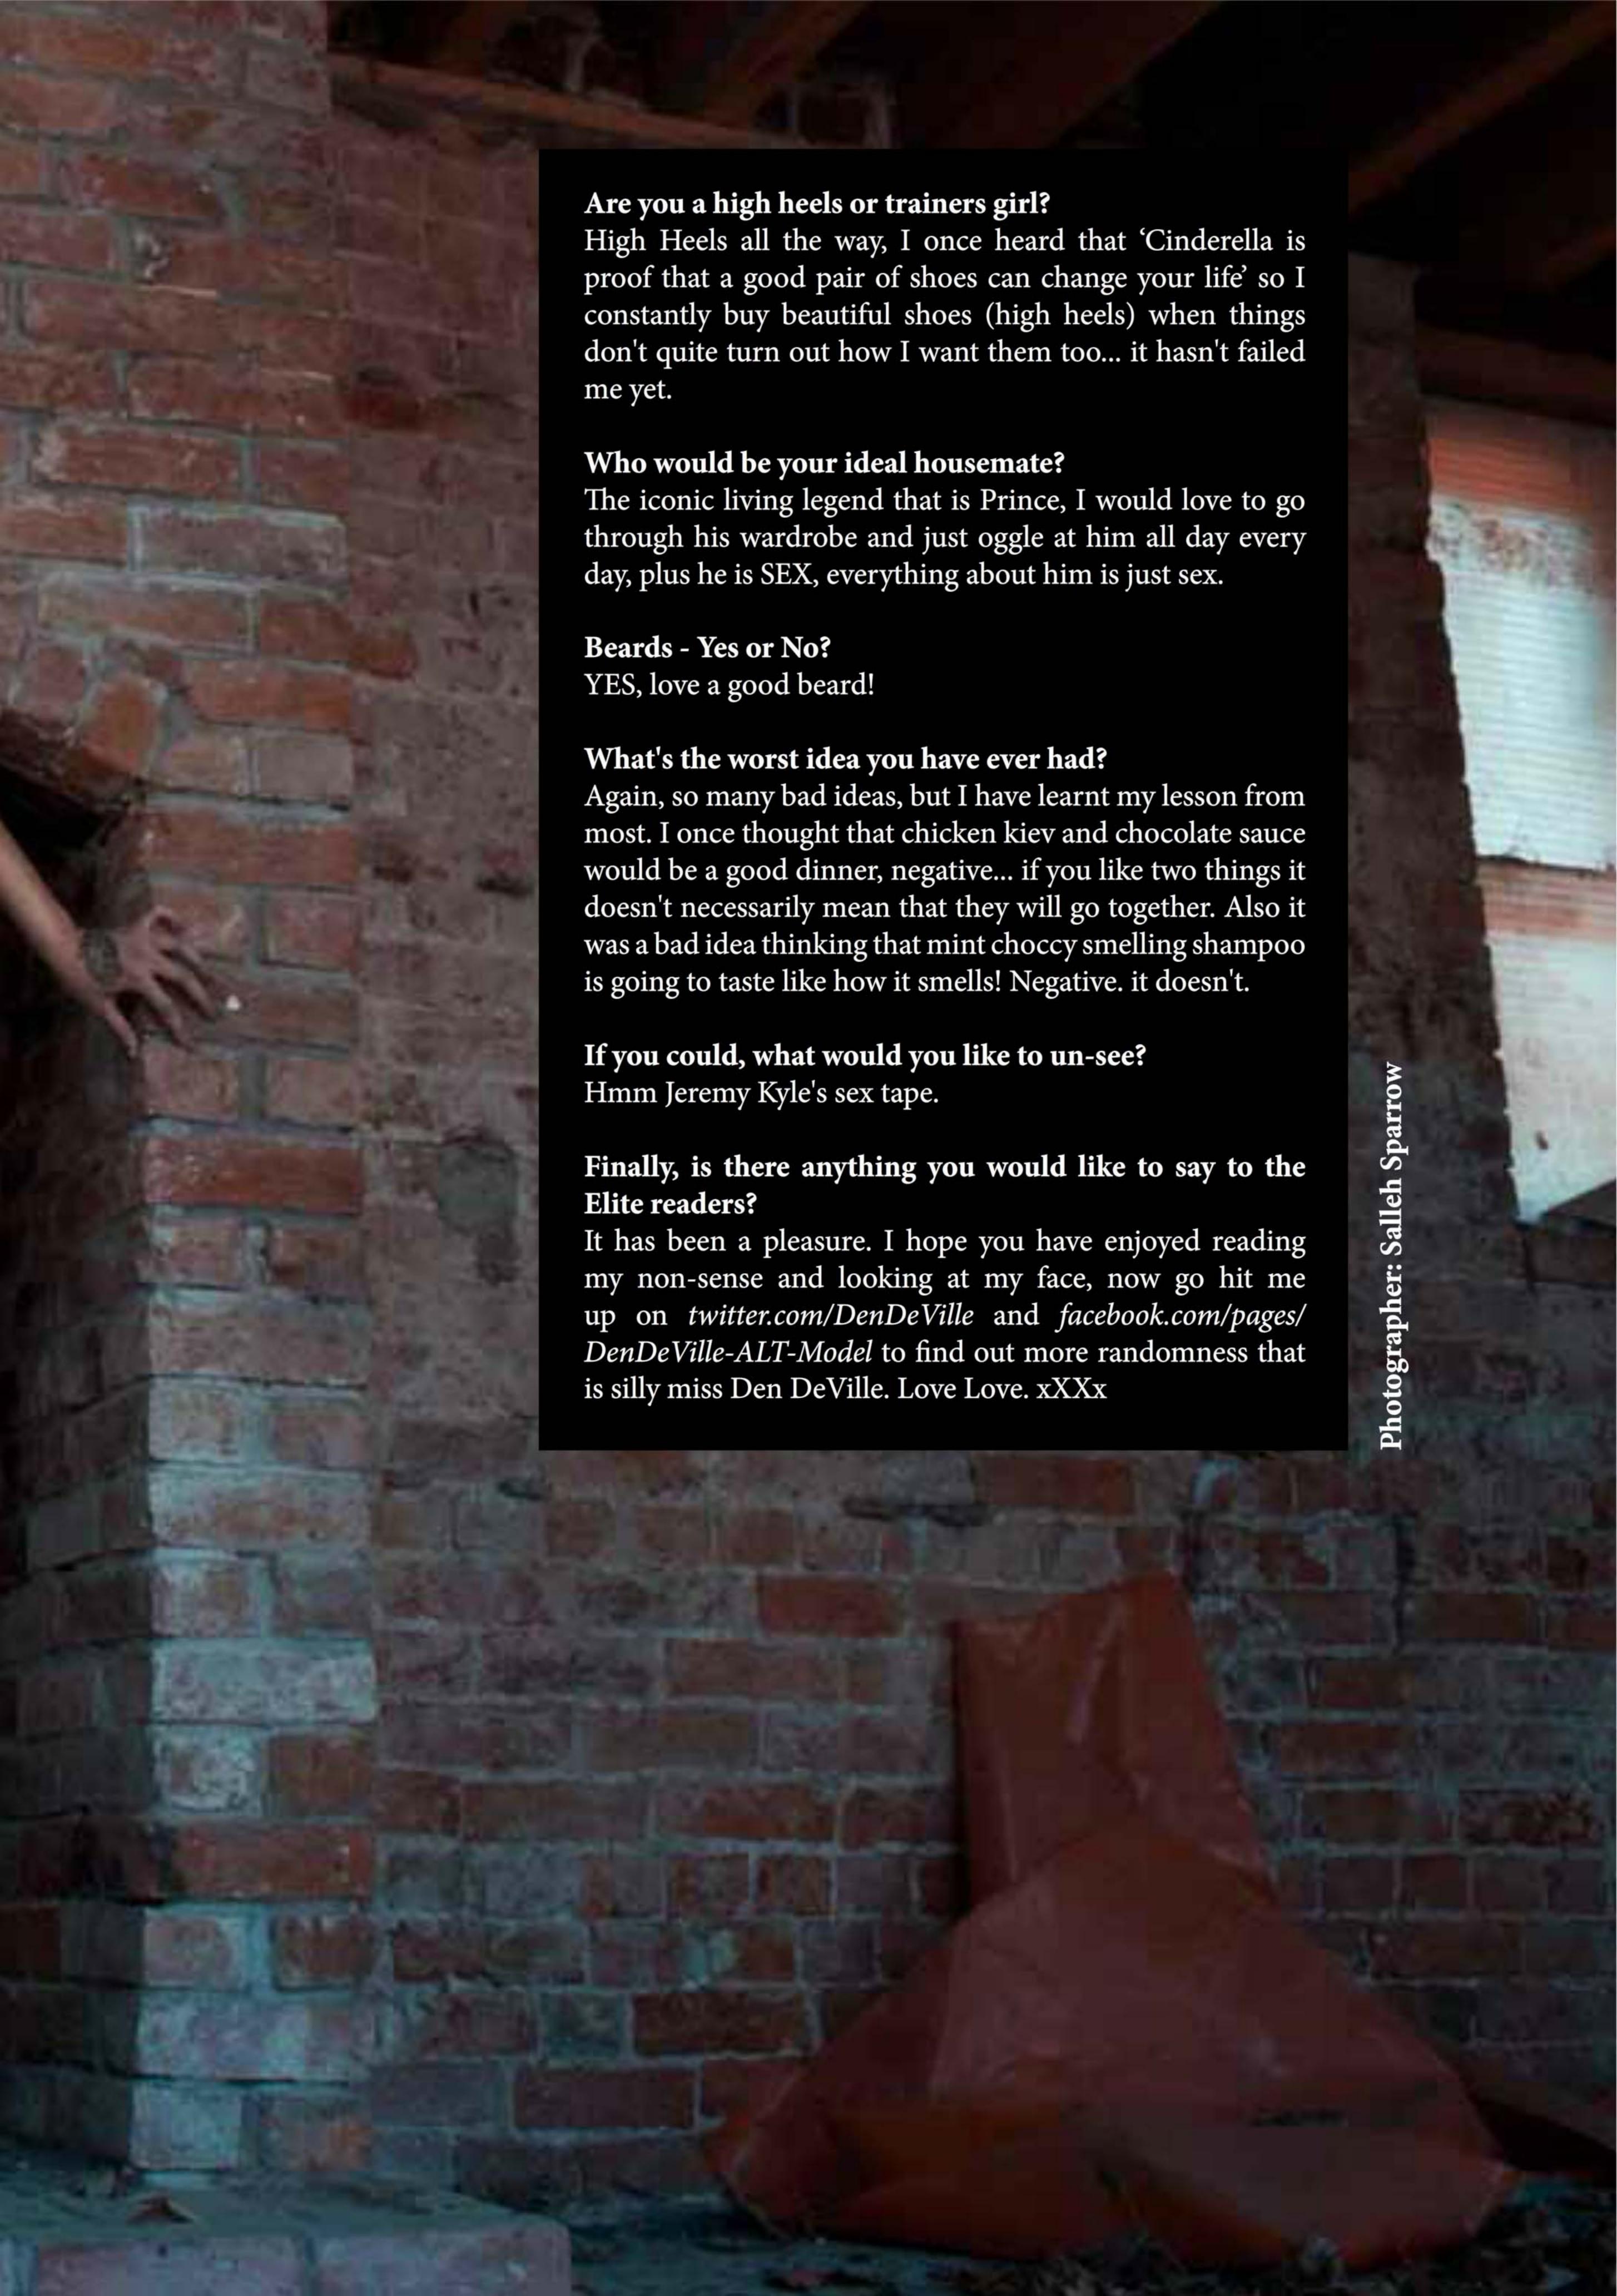

Plastic Gramies

Plastic Grannies is the creation of artist/writer, Mychailo 'Mike' Kazybrid, who has worked professionally in the comic book industry for over 36 years, this mainly on licensed characters and titles such as Wallace & Gromit, Shaun the Sheep, Duckula, Dangermouse, The Tick, Matt and the Cat (Transformers UK), to mention but a small few. His work equally includes six years producing daily cartoon strips for provincial newspapers such as the Bradford Telegraph & Argus, and later the Manchester Evening News, and more recently drawing the Wallace & Gromit daily cartoon strip in The Sun. His work has ranged from children's books, international comic strips for mobile phones, to four years in broadcast television. Much of his artwork is showcased on http:// kazybridscharactercreation. blogspot.com, this includes showing original pencils and inks of the Wallace & Gromit strips. His cartoons can also be seen in the Two Men and a Ghost feature in Haunted Magazine.

Gabriella

How would you describe your style?

I don't really think I have a style, when I was younger I used to spend ages getting ready choosing an outfit but now I just go for whatever I feel comfortable in which is normally something black, I like anything thats a bit gothic and looks like it would be perfect for a funeral. Let's go with Winona Ryder in Beetlejuice, love that.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

Was cool, I had to wear a crotchless suit at one point so that was pretty awkward (more for him than me).

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

Probably getting to eat a massive ice bun or ice split as you guys call it, I got to wear skates too that was good, oh and next to the studio is a dog groomers so when I went for a cigarette I got to play with like 6 dogs, I was in heaven.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I love taxidermy, bugs and the water. I wish there was a way to combine all three, I'm trying to be a zoo keeper right now so that's probably the closest way I can involved all the above. Oh I also dance at a circus, where I dress up as a giant baby and dance semi nude in the water. Hey that one involves water?! Sweet.

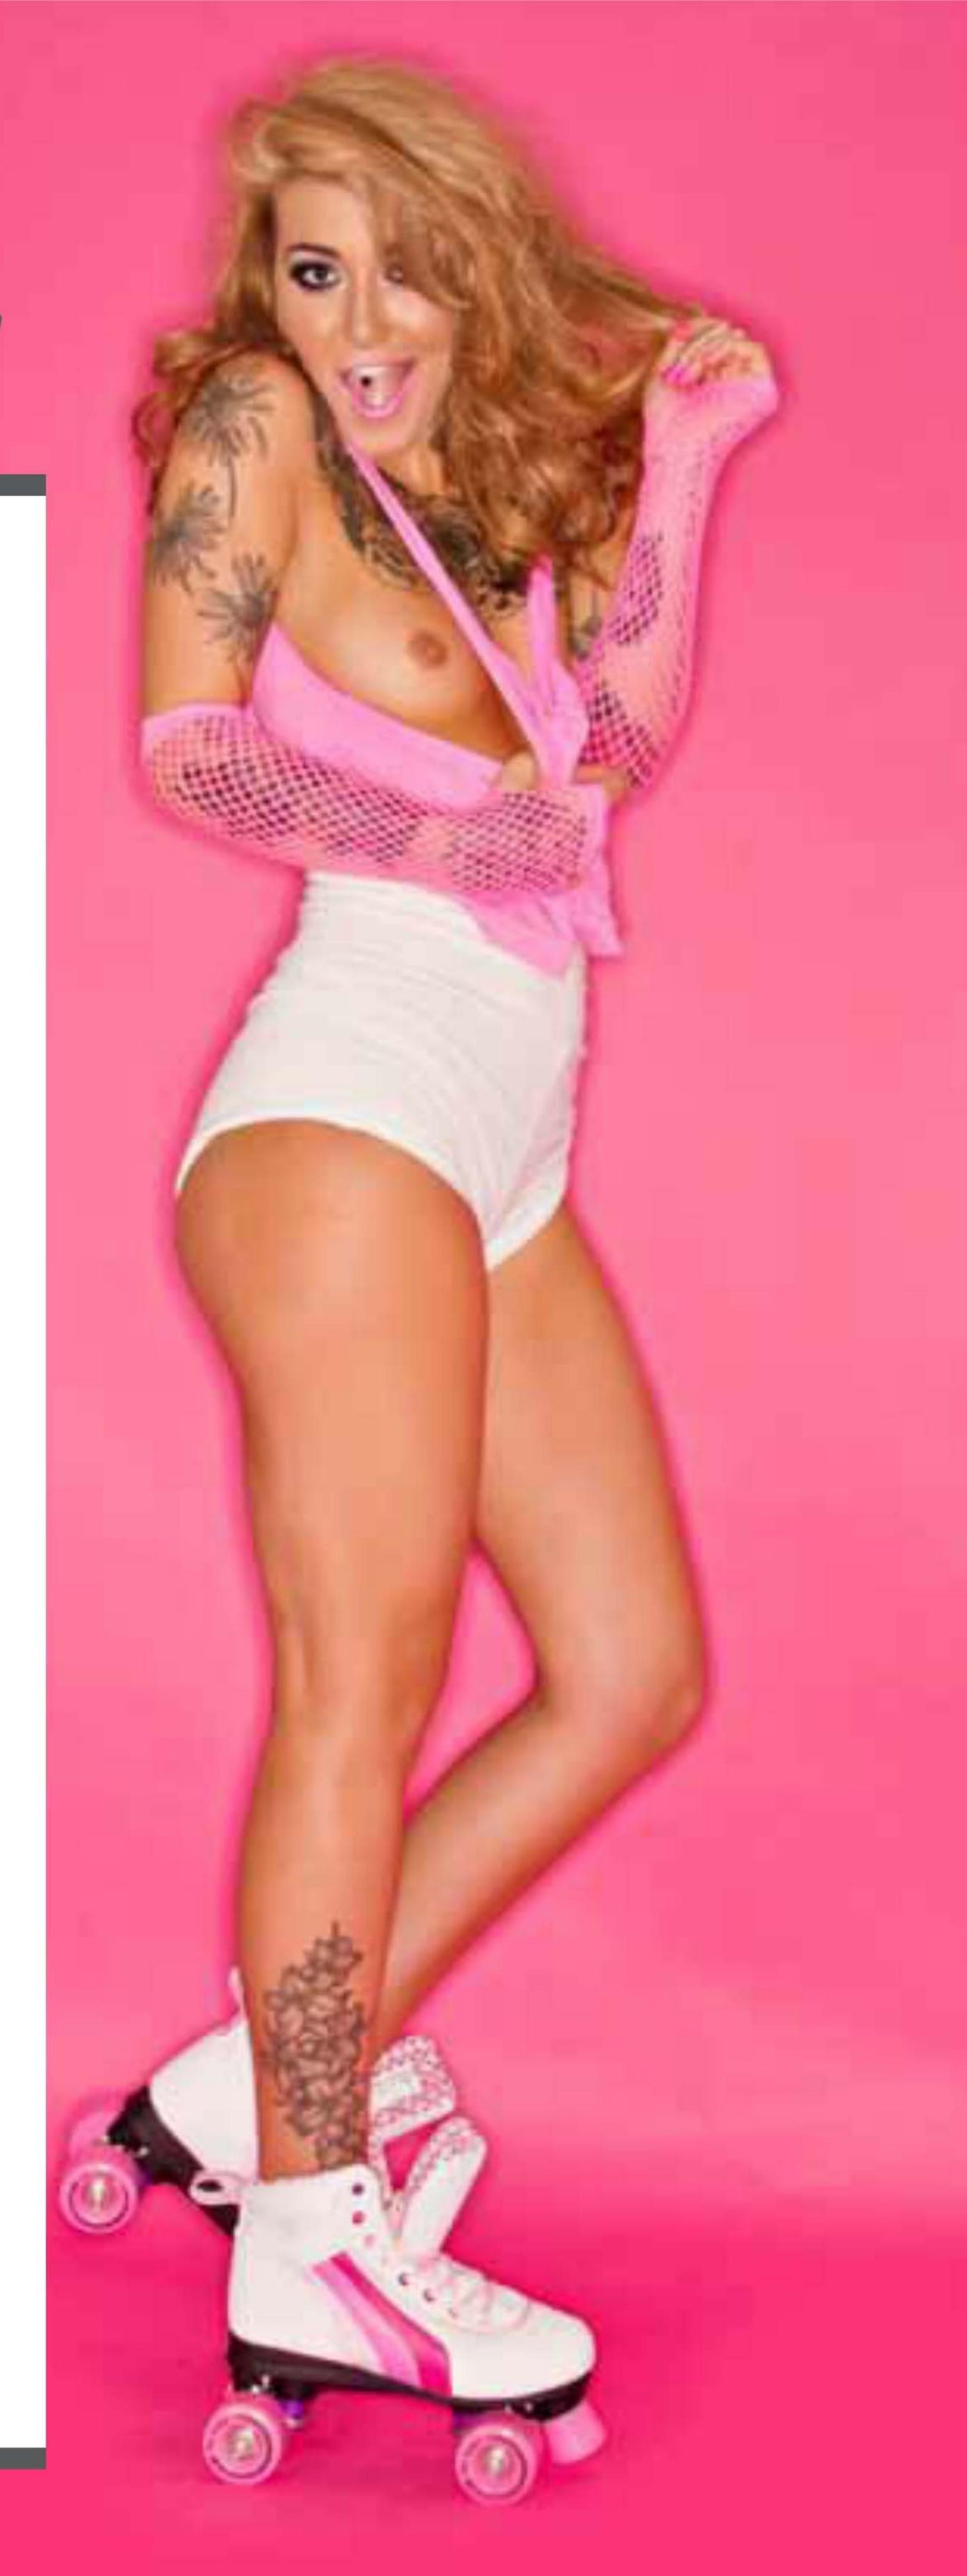

So how can a guy impress you? Be Mickey Rourke.

What is the naughtiest thing you do?

I pee in the sea and dance half naked with clowns.

Do you have any tattoos or piercings?

I have a few tattoos nothing to noticeable though;) I wish you'd asked this question like a month ago cos I had just pierced my ear like seven times all at once that was rad, I also used to have my nipple pierced but took that out as my tongue bar fell out andI had to choose which one I'd prefer too close up, I might repierce that soon though.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl?

If by trainers you mean Vans or Dr Martens then yes, but I also like to wear crazy high shoes that I buy from prostitute shops, prostitutes have the best shoes man, those gals know how to parrrrtttaaaayyy.

Who would be your ideal housemate?

No humans just animals, loads of animals.

Beards - Yes or No?

If you're ugly grow a beard, if you're hot you can do whatever the fuck you want.

What's the worst idea you have ever had?

I don't have bad ideas it's just a matter of opinion, wait maybe punching that old lady in the face wasn't such a good one?

If you could, what would you like to un-see?

I'd really like to un-see that dude PitBull! I'd like to unsee him so so much.

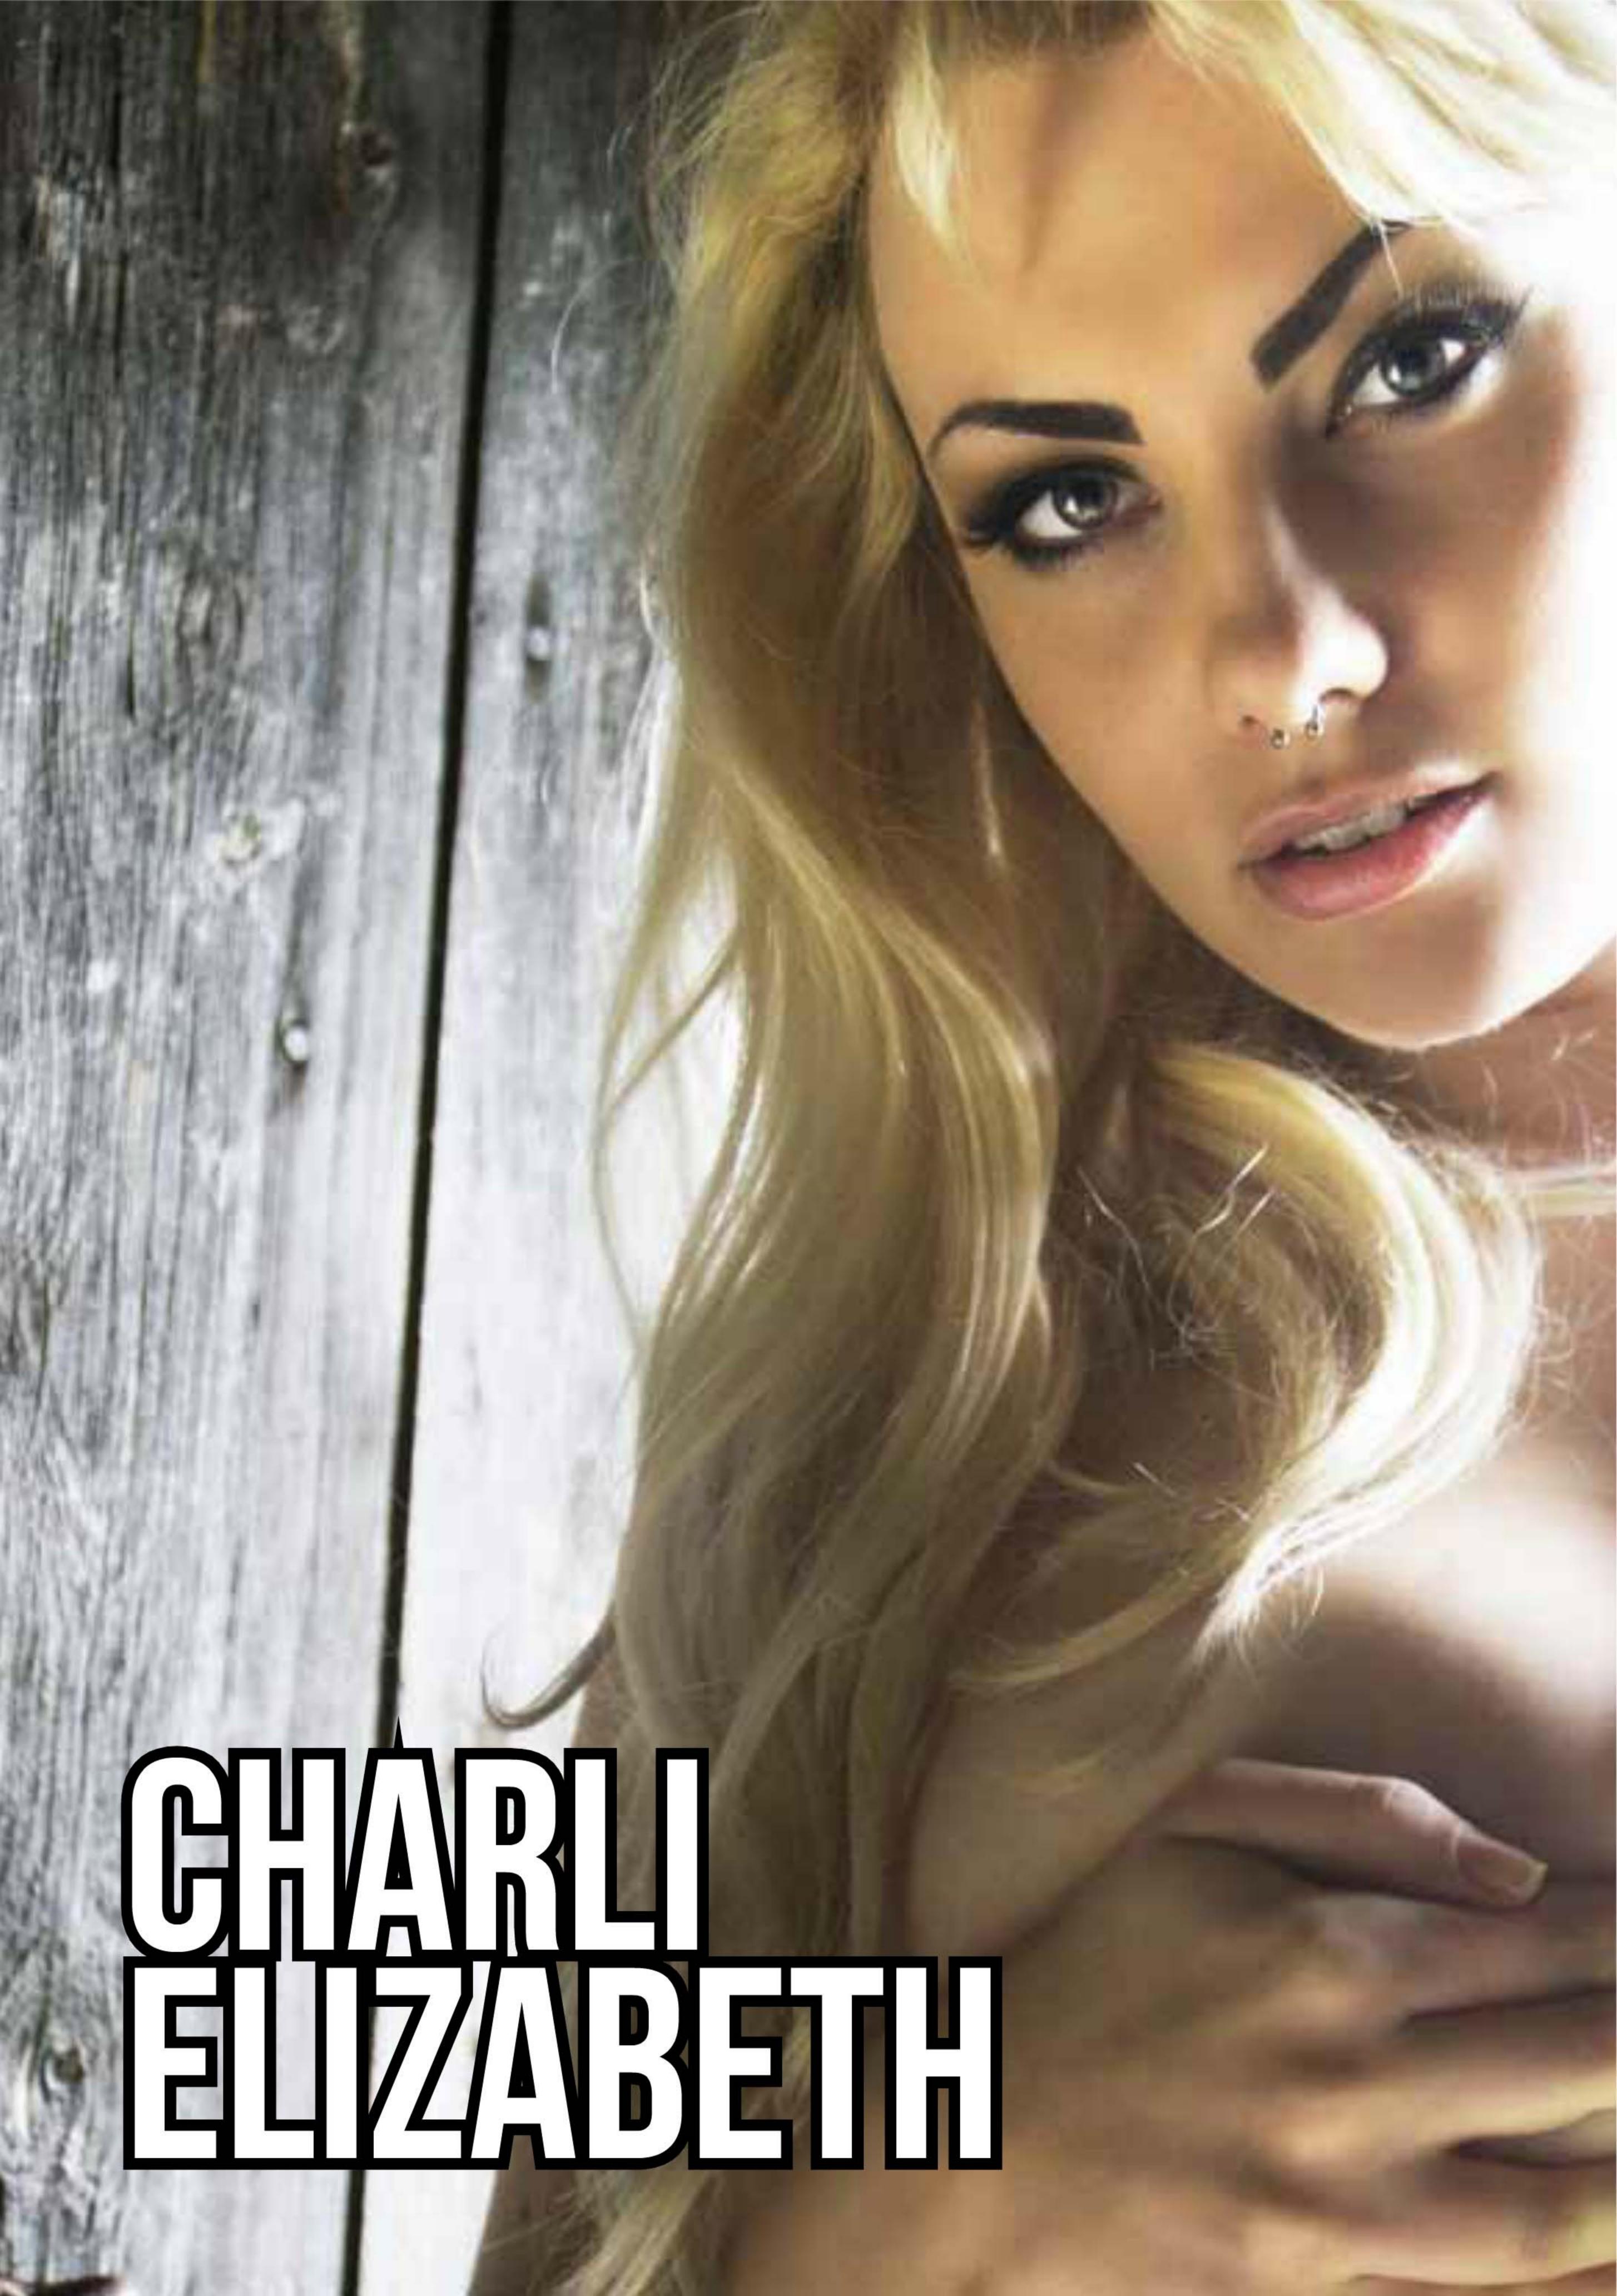

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

DID YOU KNOW TERRY NUTKINS IS DEAD.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? Working with Rowan Murray on this shoot was fantastic, we both had very similar ideas and the fact we both have slightly eccentric personalities really helped us click insantly. Really had great fun, will be doing lots of exciting new shoots with Rowan in the future!

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

Dressing up and posing is always my favourite part of any shoot. I really enjoyed this shoot with Rowan as he'd chosen some fantastic locations. I always love working in new and interesting places. Posing in high heels in the middle of an abandoned farm building... on uneven flooring is always fun! Always the risk of falling over and faceplanting myself!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I'm also a qualified beauty therapist and makeup artist. It's my next biggest passion other than modelling. I'm doing my training for massage this year, and electrical treatments. And no... I don't offer happy endings! :P

So how can a guy impress you? Wine and dine! I love Italian food, it's my absolute favourite. I'm a classy bird! Sometimes;)

What is the naughtiest thing you do?

I'm generally a very flirty person, it's all about giving the 'eyes' and a bit of lip biting. You'll know if you're in trouble;)

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

I'm always turned on by a good bit of dirty talk, who isn't?;)

Are you a high heels or trainers girl?

High Heels! I'm only 5"2 and getting dwarfed by everyone as it is, so I will always wear heels either when I'm out, or shooting. You'll sometimes find me doing the chores in heels too, nothing like feeling sexy doing housework!

Who would be your ideal housemate?

Scarlett Johansson... I'd keep her locked in my bedroom forever. All I can say is.. NOM:)

Beards - Yes or No?

Yes! I love facial hair. Nothing quite like the 'Shabby - Chic' look! I've always liked my men a little rough around the edges.

What's the worst idea you have ever had?

Getting my nipples pierced. Worst thing ever. I almost cried afterwards! I don't have them in anymore, but the even more stupid thing is that I'd really love to have them done again, I think it's such a cute piercing.

If you could, what would you like to un-see?

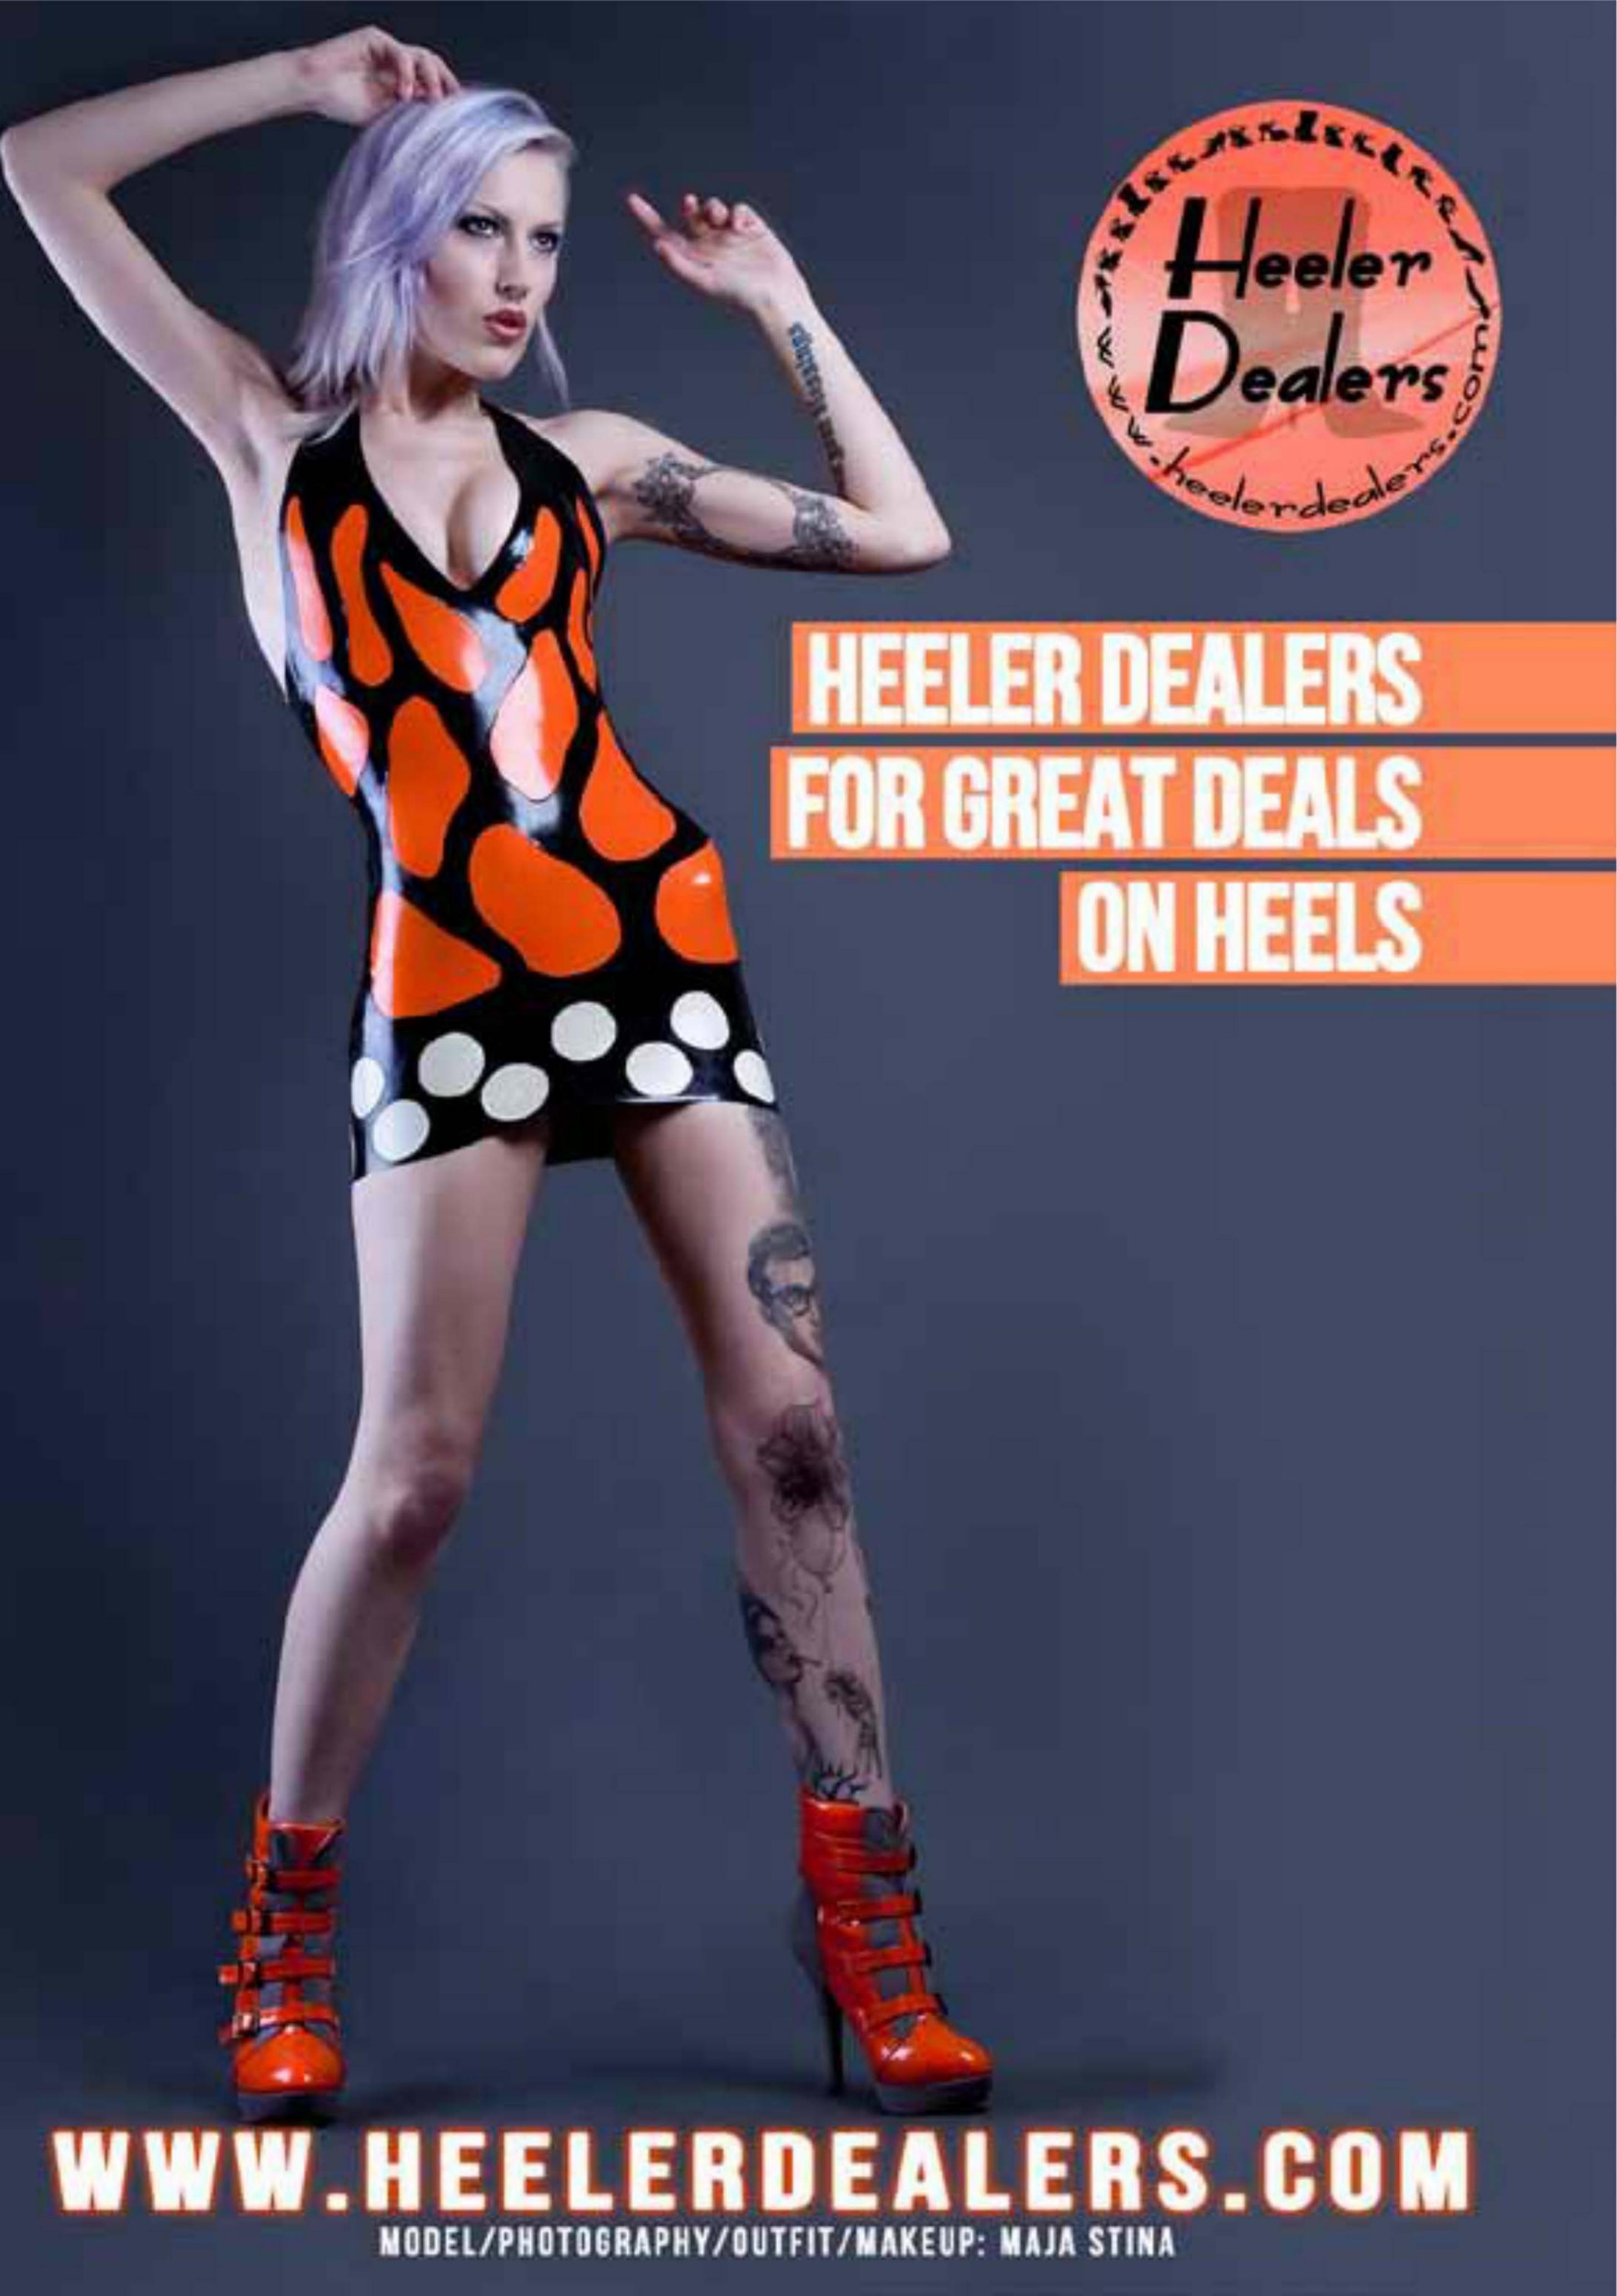

A friend of mine showed me a really disgusting video a while back. Basically a porn star getting some guys load in the back of her throat so bad, it made her gag, and then she projectile vomited everywhere. Totally gross and disgusting... but absolutely hilarious. I felt so ill after I'd seen that video, never again!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Just like to say keep an eye out for my future work if you like what you see, thanky ou my lovelies! <3

Name: Dannii B

Age: 22

Location: Leicester

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

Hello! I'm Dannii B from Leicester! I have been modelling on and off for a couple of years but since graduating last year I decided to really push myself in the industry and get featured in cool stuff like Elite. I actually started modelling because my mum joked around saying I should be a glamour model because I have big boobs, so when I was 18 I thought I would give it a go and i frikking love it!

How would you describe your style?

I would say I am your typical alternative glamour girl!

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

Awesome, Fiendarella is awesome, every model should shoot with him.

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

Erm being put into 8" heels is always fun when a photographer is worried for your safety and attempts to catch you every few seconds haha, he also liked metal, you know it's going to be a good shoot when the photographer is into the same music as you.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I co-own a clothing company with my guy called 'Peaked Apparel', I've always had a passion for fashion so to be able to wear my own clothes is pretty immense! I love to sing, you may hear it one day;) I play bass in a metal band and I am also the midlands ambassador for Monster Energy, I drive the monster truck around the Midlands and to events sponsored by Monster and give awesome people free drinks and stickers, it's a pretty sick job.

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be and why?

I'd be Arnold Schwarzenegger so I could walk around town and shout 'GET TO DA CHOPPAAAA!' as people pass by.

if you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do?

Arrange a group shoot with all the hot Elite girls.

What's your dream job?

Hands down I would LOVE to be in a band, tour and what not, be a singer or a well known model, or I could do all three whilst still running the clothing company, that would be rad!

What's a big turn on for you?

Sounds odd but I love cocky/arrogant alternative guys, like my guy, I'm still taming him!

What's your favourite booze?

Monster Energy & Vodka!

Who do you have a crush on at the moment?

My guy:)

Who's your favourite artist in music right now?

Emmure, Bring me the Horizon, Architects, August Burns Red, While She Sleeps, The Devil Wears Prada and Parkway Drive. I realise that's more that one but I am a massive metal music junkie, you will always see me at gigs and festivals!

What would be your ideal night in?

Take-away, a funny film and cuddles!

So how can a guy impress you?

I'm pretty devoted to my guy but to impress me as a friend, make me laugh and be interesting, open a conversation with an interesting fact or gossip and you will have a friend for life!

What is the naughtiest thing you do?

Well that would be telling, I'm not exactly a good girl, let's just leave it at that;)

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Stay Rad! <3

Hi Kim! So tell us about yourself and how would you describe your style?

3 words - I have none. I go through different styles, depends on how I'm feeling that day. I like to dress smart though sometimes, in contrast with my tattoos, it throws people off sometimes! But nothing beats jeans and a tight vest top. The bedroom is a completely different story though! We'll save that for another day!

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

Matthew was amazing to work with! This was the first time I'd ever done anything like this, he made it feel natural and made me feel completely comfortable. It was of throws best days I've had, he's given me the confidence to pursue modelling. I can't thank him enough!

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

Definitely the kinkier stuff! The handcuffs and leg restrains! Can't go wrong with a bit of bondage. I liked getting my bum out haha.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Call of Duty Black Ops! It's a huge passion of mine, I can't live a day without playing it online! The amount I play it borders on obsession.

So how can a guy impress you?

He has to dress nicely. He can't show more skin than I do! Men who constantly parade around with their top off are a big no no for me. And he definitely can not have longer hair than me. My last boyfriends hair was longer than mine, it was shameful on my part. So I can be impressed with a good dress sense, nice hair, he has to wine and dine me, and then if he's lucky he can take me back to his for an xbox session!

What is the naughtiest thing you do?

The naughtiest thing I do is I'll go out when it's raining wearing a white top with no bra on, it's indecent exposure I can get away with! Aside from that I'm a pretty good girl, although I can be persuaded to be naughty if I like a suggested idea...

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

If you kiss and nibble my ear I will melt in your hands, I absolutely love that. And my neck too. Nothing turns me on more! Oh and European accents are a big bonus too. You could say anything you wanted in your native language, literally anything, and I would still be turned on.

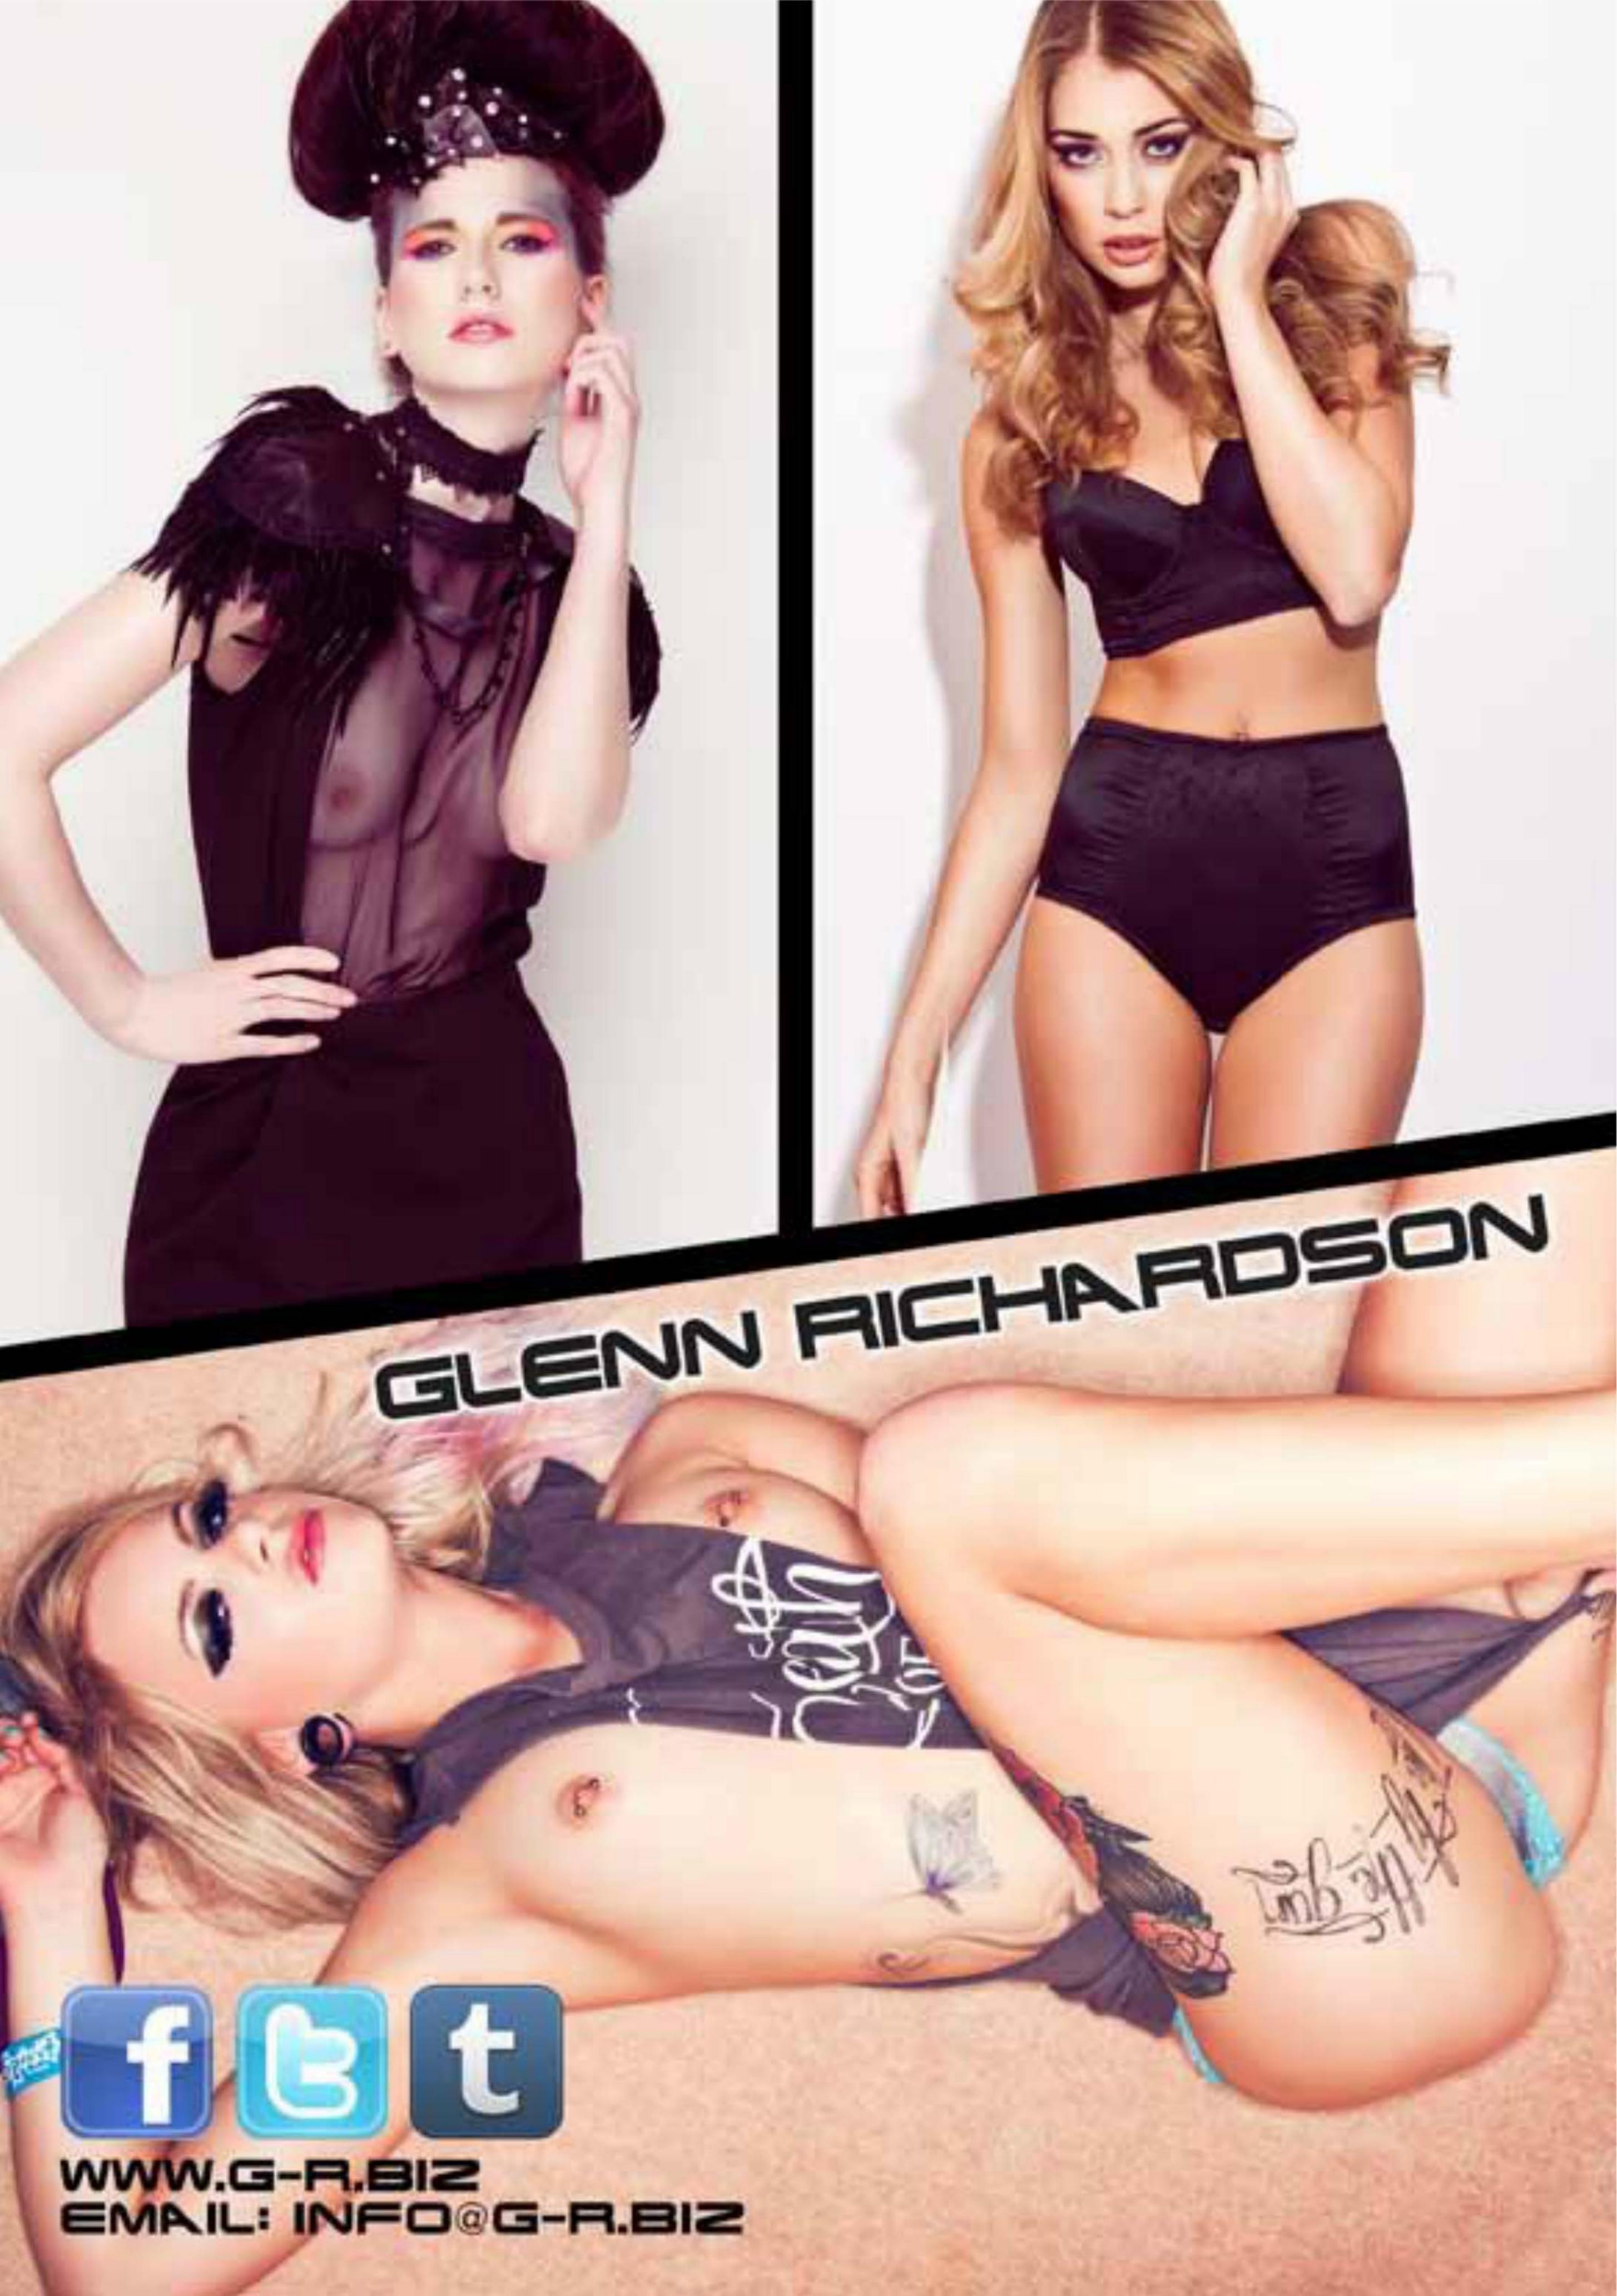

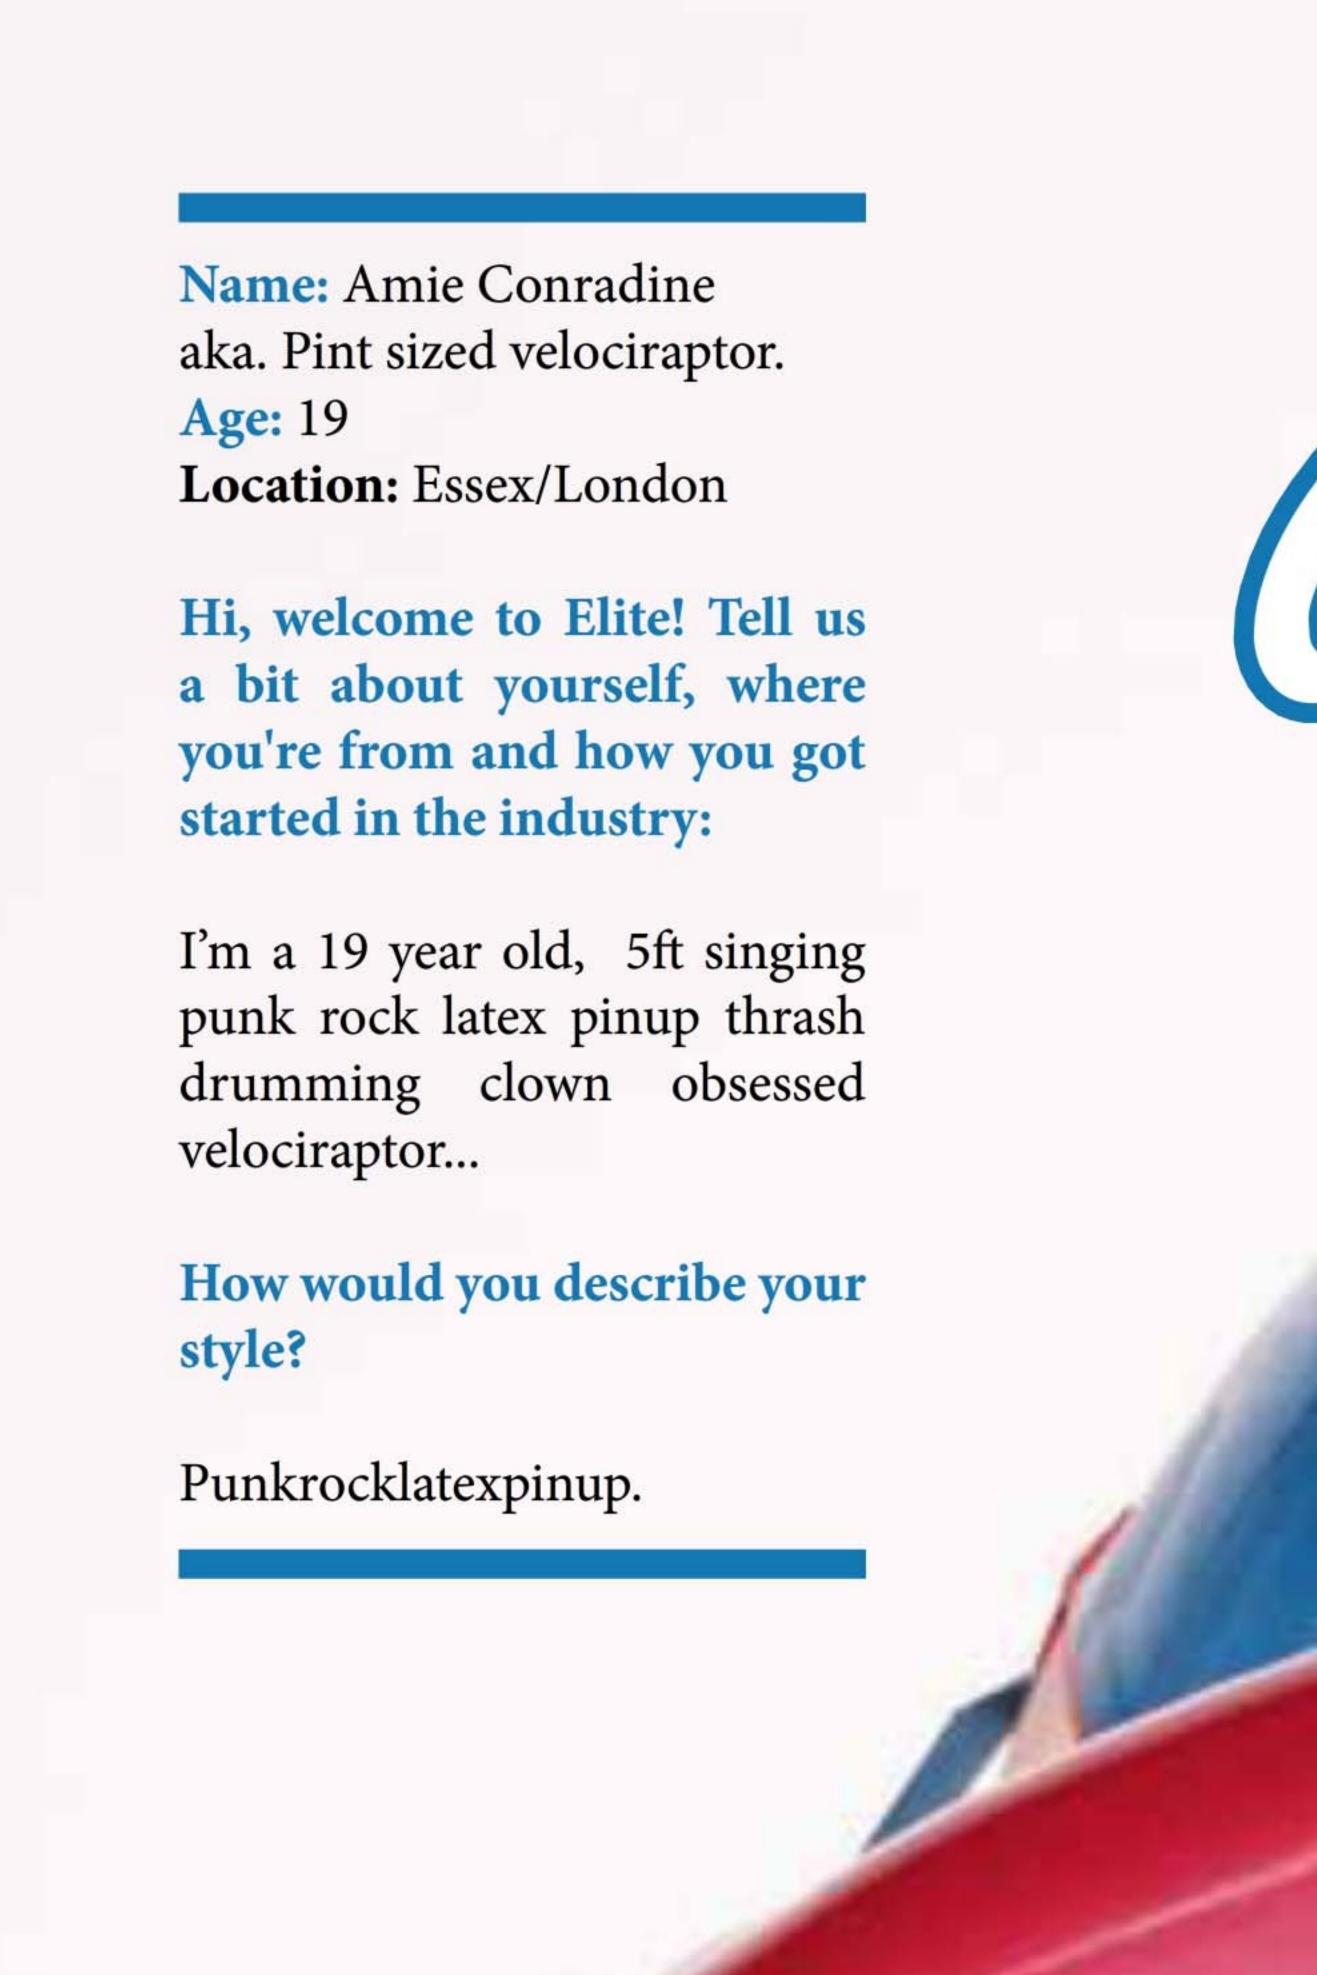

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

I loved working with Graeme on this shoot, we had so much fun shooting and he was really friendly and great to work with:)

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

I loved all of it, but the massive amounts of food consumption after the shoot was especially awesome:P

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Music, songwriting, fitness, anything creative really I love to do, I do a bit of drawing as well. They always look a bit weird though, I never share them, last one I did was a clown girl who had tentacles for a neck. Haha.

So, rumour has it you're a bit of a punk rock goddess! So what instrument do you play?

Haha I'm a singer and a drummer mainly but I can also play the bass and guitar, music is my life and my one true love:)

Ah so you sing too? So who are you major influences?

For my singing with my band Pirate Skunk & The Jokers my major influences are Joan Jett, L7, Distillers, old school No Doubt kind of sound. I'm a trained singer so I used to have to sing theatre music and opera style, as part of my training which I do really enjoy but punk and ska is just in my music soul so I love singing with grit power and punk rock by my side :) I've been performing since the age of 9/10 and been in and out of bands gigging since I was about 11/12:)

Who are you favourite band and why?

I have a few big favourites but recently I haven't stopped listening to Municipal Waste and Otep, I absolutely love those two bands.

What's next for Amie?

My music career is starting to kick off so 2013 is going to be a big year for me recording my first EP and start touring:) I'm so excited, music is my main passion in life and I'm so happy that it's finally started to kick off for me:)

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be and why?

I wouldn't wanna be any particular person but I'd like to be a guy for a day, I've always wondered what it would be like to bash one out as a guy haha.

if you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do?

Id fill the issue's full of girls riding dinosaurs dressed as clowns. So yeah I've warned you... Haha!

If you could be a superhero, who would you be and why?

Well as much as I like the sound of bullshit man aka Karl Pilkingtons alter ego, I would be a supervillian of the sea, the siren that drags deserted sailors to their death. Mwahaha.

What's your favourite film?

I love Shawshank Redemption.

Do you have any crazy phobias?

People touching my nose, I used to get bullied alot in high school and people would grab my nose and pull really hard, so now when people touch it it makes me angry and I have to sit there rubbing my nose till the feeling goes away... sounds stupid I know haha.

So how can a guy impress you?

Don't try to impress me. If your trying too hard I'm gonna ignore the hell out of you.

What is the naughtiest thing you do?

Ahhh I'm afraid that's a secret, woman of mystery me;)

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

CLOWNS.

What's your favourite fancy dress outfit?

Clowns, pirates, dinosaurs, anything I'm obsessed with.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Congratulations and thank you for reading this far and not getting freaked out or turning the page over :D But in all seriousness thank you to my friends, family, loved ones and my awesome incredible fans, I love you all <3:)

Photographer: Francois Boutemy of Simulacra Studio, London (www.simulacrastudio.com)

Models: Aima Indigo, KayKay, Nancy Harry, Koshil, Michelle Payne, Lepa Dinis, Leah Debrincat, and Dark Arts director Asha Tank.

Hey Dark Arts, we are big fans! Tell us about yourselves and what makes you stand out in the industry:

Hi! Dark Arts is the UK's very first alternative model agency. We strive to provide the very best alternative models, both in experience and looks.

We prefer to focus on a select number of established models and are firm believers in quality, not quantity when it comes to the number of models on our books... we are certainly not an agency for hobbyists. We are a commercial agency and require the same high quality from our models as a mainstream agency would – just with a darker/edgier look.

How long have you been going for and where did it all begin?

Officially we launched in October 2005, so almost 7 years now! It all started as a networking directory to help models, performers, photographers, stylists and artists... the very first in the UK for the alternative community. The focus changed in 2009 when we re-launched as a fully-fledged alternative model agency, and we are also now expanding to incorporate our new entertainment sister-site for performers.

Who was your very first model on your books?

Hard to say as it was so long ago! We waited until we had a number of models on the books before building the website. Dark Arts director Asha has built and maintains the website herself – so technically she was probably the first! Once she was happy with the design for her own page, she used it as a template for the other models – all part of the design process!!

Any big plans for Dark Arts?

Lots! But not much we can tell you just yet, other than onwards and upwards! 2012 has been a great year for the agency so far, we've been non-stop with bookings and it's been great to mingle at lots of events and conventions. We'll be attending the London Tattoo Convention with a number of our models at the end of this month and will be promoting the agency on our stand. Make sure to swing by and say hello if you're attending!

Who do you admire in the industry?

Alternative models who have made a name for themselves... Ulorin Vex, Červená Fox, El Wood, Arabella Drummond, Nina Kate, Sabina Kelley, Mosh, Rick Genest/Zombie Boy. Anyone who is succeeding through their own hard work and determination.

If you could be Elite for one day, what would you do?

The same thing we do every day Pinky! Our team is used to being extra productive – we'd probably just do as much work as possible! And drink lots of coffee!

SO we are planning on showing a lot of Dark Arts in the future, you excited?

Very! It will be awesome to see more Dark Arts models featured in Elite, we're big fans!

Finally, anything to say to the Elite readers?

Just a massive thanks for all the support and extra likes – we have lots more in store for you! And check us out at www.darkarts.org.uk if you haven't already!

Name: Michelle Payne

Location: Now Germany (currently on an extended holiday in South Africa)

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I'm originally from Cape Town, South Africa but I've lived in London where I was first introduced to Dark Arts and the industry by friends. I currently live in Hamburg, Germany. I'm a make-up and hair artist by profession and work mainly on international fashion photographic shoots and shows.

How would you describe your style?

I don't have any easily defined or specific style but my Who would be your ideal housemate? tattoos and most things about me is an amalgamation of opposites or strongly contrasting things due to the fact that I'm not a great fan of symmetry and that I believe a little imbalance is necessary for progression in most areas of life.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

- Most forms of body modification.
- Make-up artistry and fashion.
- Art, of which I do painting in most mediums and drawing.
- I currently do pole dancing but have also been trained in classical ballet, modern and contemporary dance and tribal fusion belly dancing.

So how can a guy impress you?

By being ambitious and having a clear idea of what he wants from life and how to get it.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Confidence.

How many tattoos and piercings do you have?

Quite a few! Tattoos: two full sleeves, back, belly neck, knuckle and leg tattoos. Piercings: if it sticks out it has been pierced.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl?

Trainers for sure but for going out stilettos are a must!

I can't stand living with other people no matter who they are!

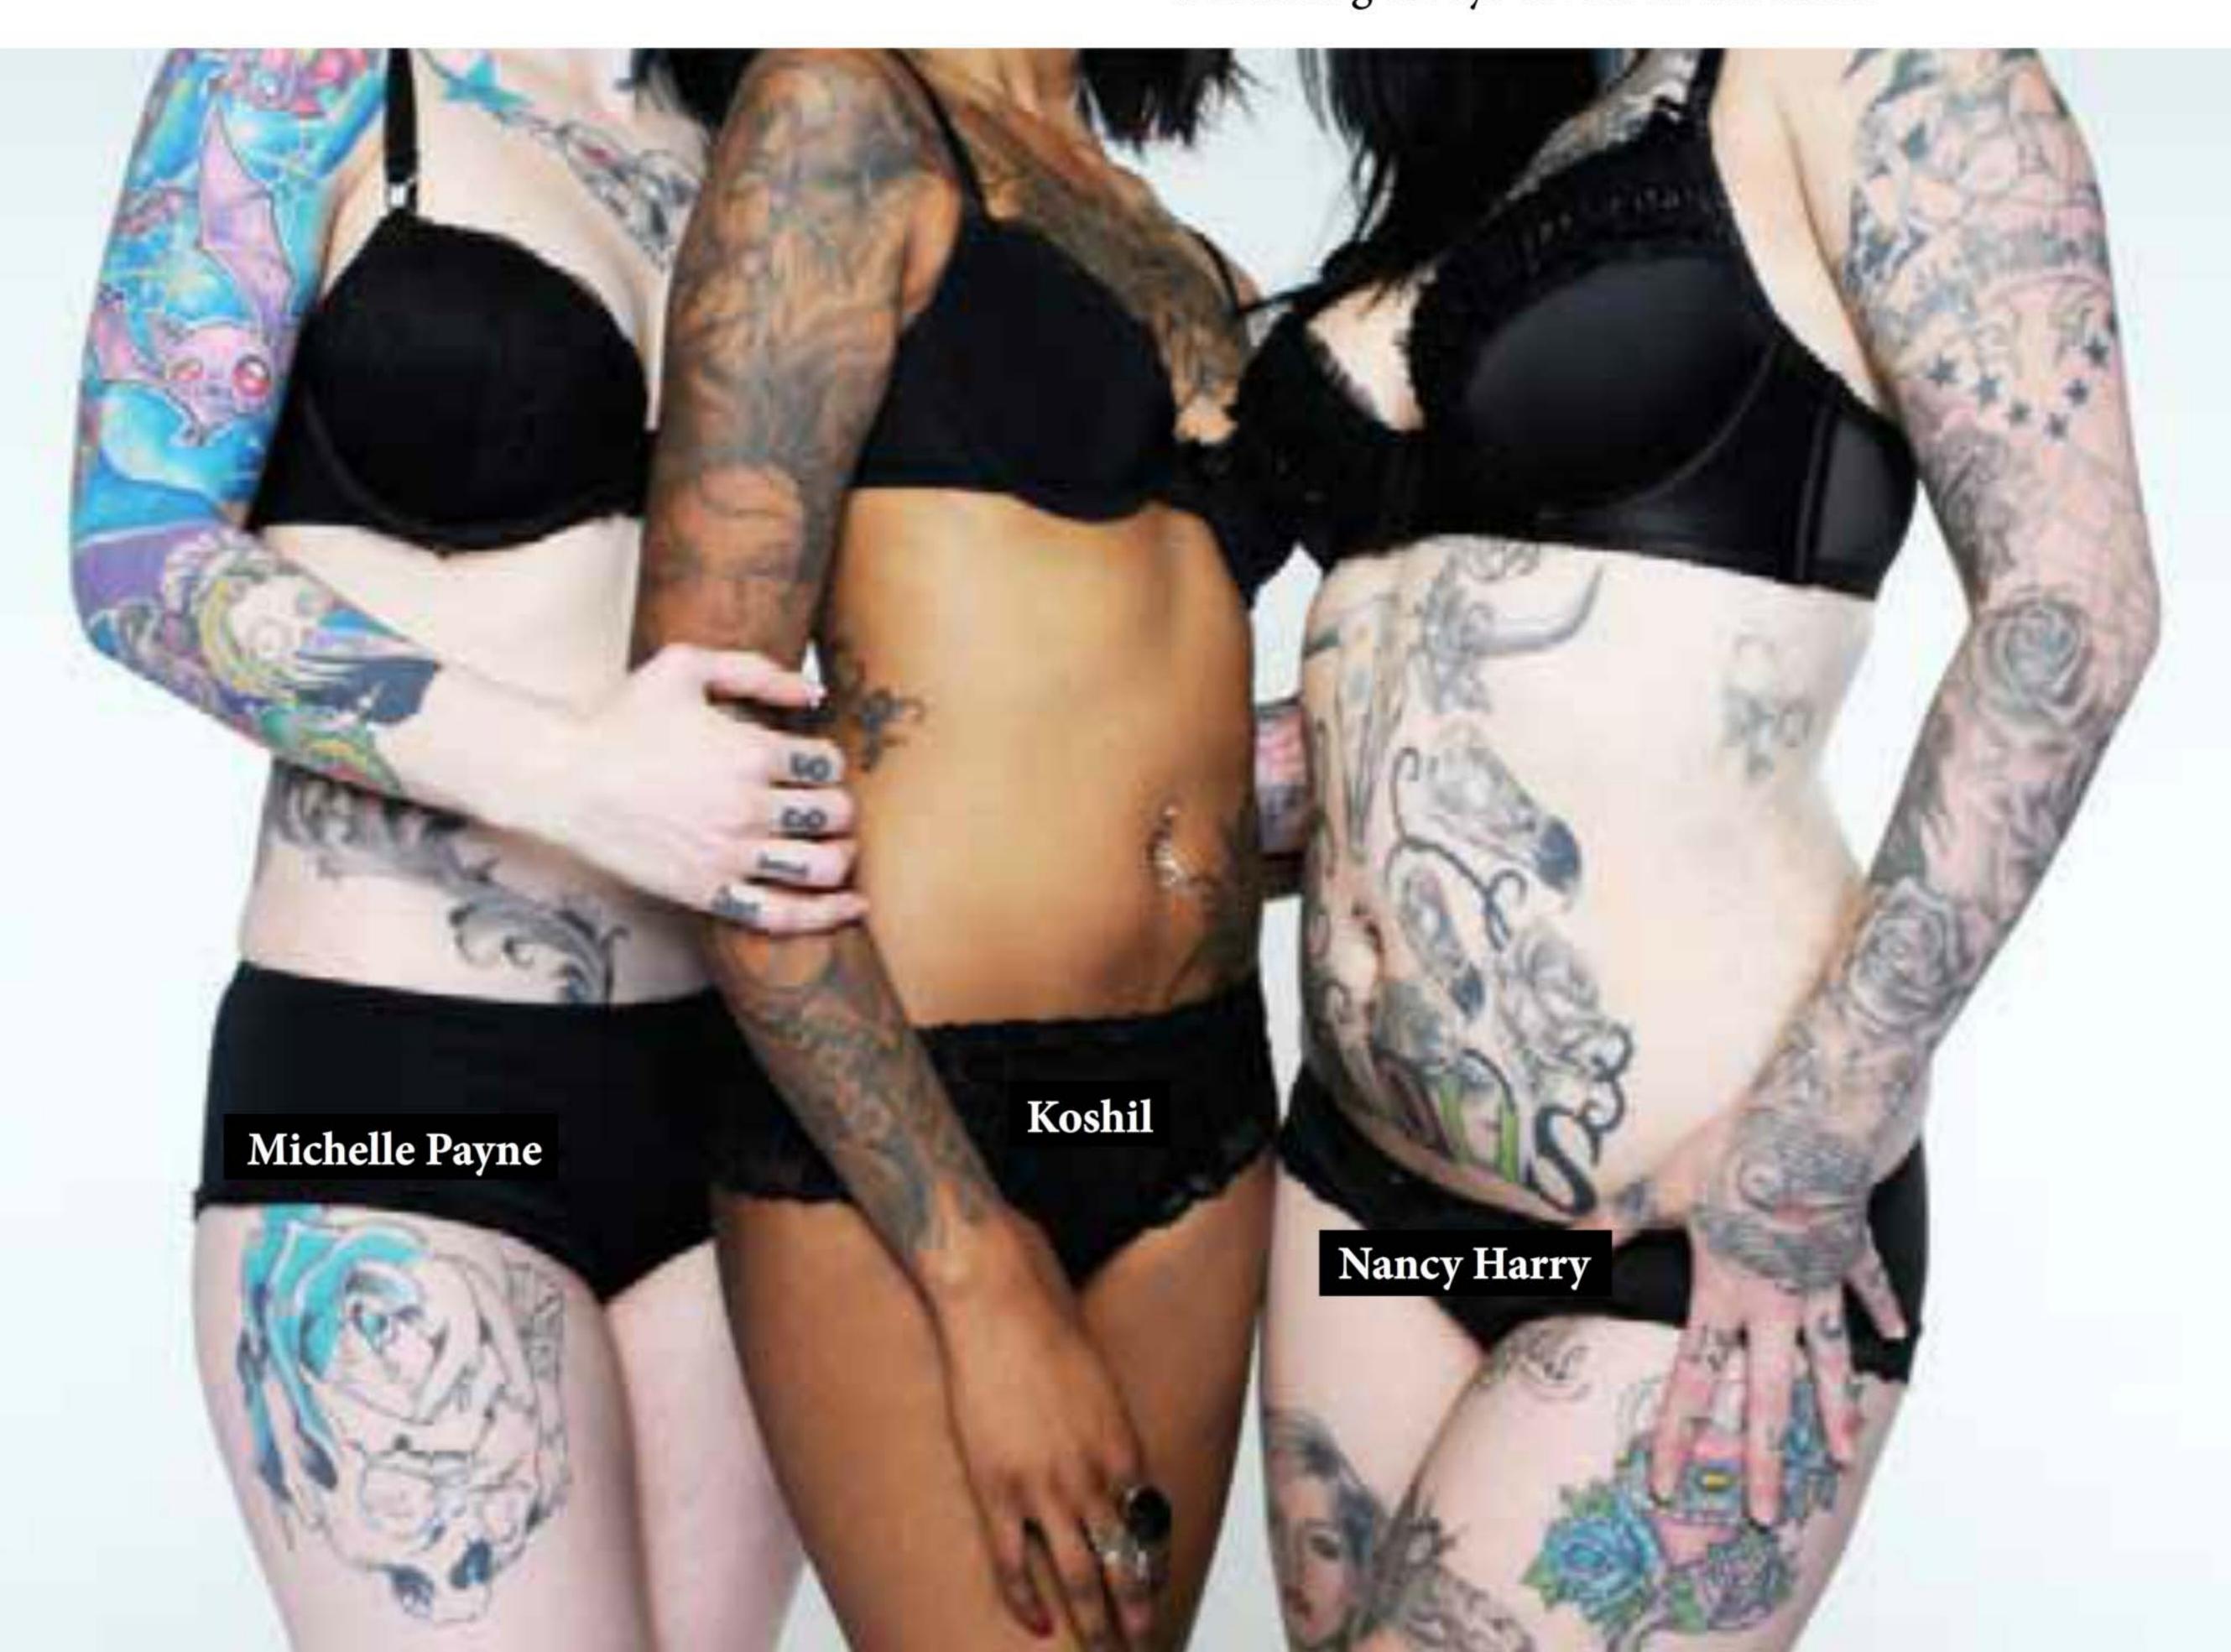

How long have you been with Dark Arts and how did you come to work with them?

Since 2009 I think. A friend recommended me to them.

If you could be one superhero who would it be? Iron Man!

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do?

Encourage more group shoots and features. Everyone seems to like variety and offering saucy pics with girls interacting always covers all the bases.

Name: Sheena Koshil

Age: 26

Location: Kent

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I'm Sheena Koshil and I'm from Kent. I had my first taste of modelling by accident... I applied for Suicide Girls and Front Mag both on a whim and mostly for a laugh, never ever thought my pictures would get looked at twice. But before I knew it I was shooting a set and became an official SG as well as an Alt Girl of the month for Front. Then it just went on from there...

How would you describe your style?

Colour-phobic. I mostly wear black, white and grey.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I'm very passionate about interior design, tattoos, fashion and art.

So how can a guy impress you?

Well, for me there is nothing more appealing than a guy with a sense of humour but not a cheesy one-liner type of humour... I like a guy who is witty as well as a bit silly! Also a guy who isn't afraid to just be himself and can really just have a laugh with me. I'm not into the whole red roses and box of chocolate malarkey!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

Making me laugh. Being tattooed and tall also helps...

How many tattoos and piercings do you have?

I have a fair amount of ink, so in terms of places I have my arms, chest, ribs, thigh, legs, stomach, hip and back tattooed. I only have my ears, tongue and navel (twice) piercing-wise.

Who would be your ideal housemate?

Chuck Bass.

How long have you been with Dark Arts and how did you come to work with them?

I'm actually not sure how long I've been with Dark Arts, but I found out about them a while ago and kept trying to apply but their books were closed, so I kept an eye on it and as soon as they opened again I applied and the rest is history!

Who is your favourite model from Dark Arts?

There's too many amazing beauties to choose from! I can't pick just one, so my top faves are Asha, Hollie, Keiko and Lepa.

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do?

I'd throw a week long Elite party...

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Thanks so much for the awesome comments and love on our Dark Arts group shot! Super chuffed!

Name: Aima Indigo

Age: Mentally or physically? haha

Location: London

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I am a half Mexican, half English and a super fiery Latina. I love purple in any of its many shades and I'm a very lively energetic person. I am obsessed with 80's cartoons and choose to cover my body in them so i am always surrounded by happy never never lands where the baddies always lose! I got into modelling purely by accident; I was always being photographed and then people started to want to pay me to do it. I am very fortunate to have made a career from it and frankly I'm not much good at anything else!!

How would you describe your style?

Elegant candy kitsch

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Bunny rabbits. I have two and I volunteer in Greenwich rabbit rescue and also educate people/ spread awareness of rabbit battery farming for pet food suppliers...yes it's sick!

So how can a guy impress you?

Languages... I love a guy who can speak multiple languages!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

Cleanliness... when a man look/smells clean it makes we wanna fully filth them up again!

How many tattoos and piercings do you have?

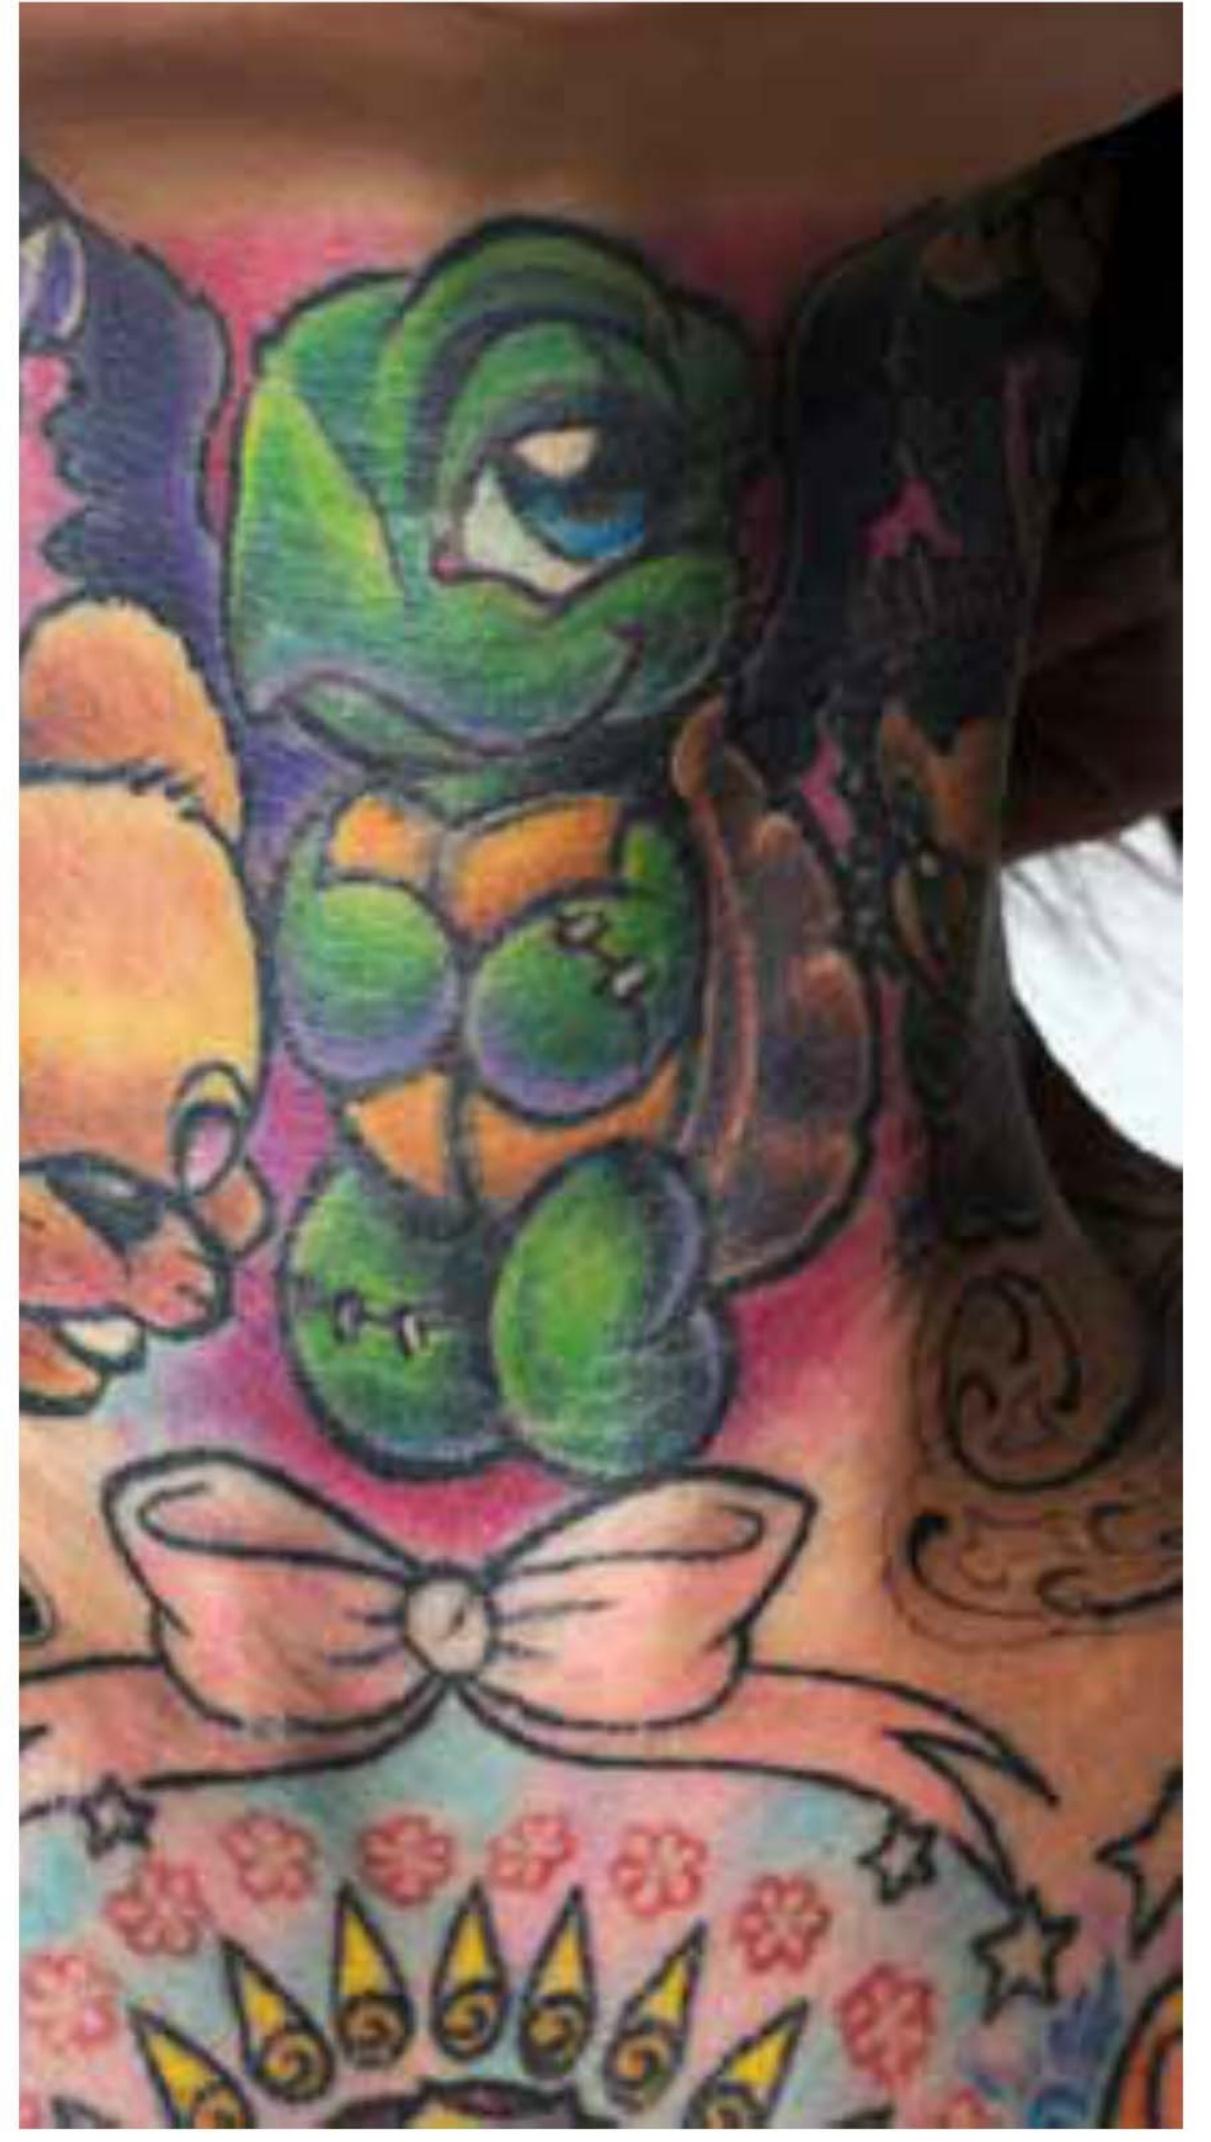

As when I get asked in the street... I have one tattoo - it just isn't joined up yet. Then only have my belly pierced and stretched to 10mm and I've now shrunk my ears down to 35mm.

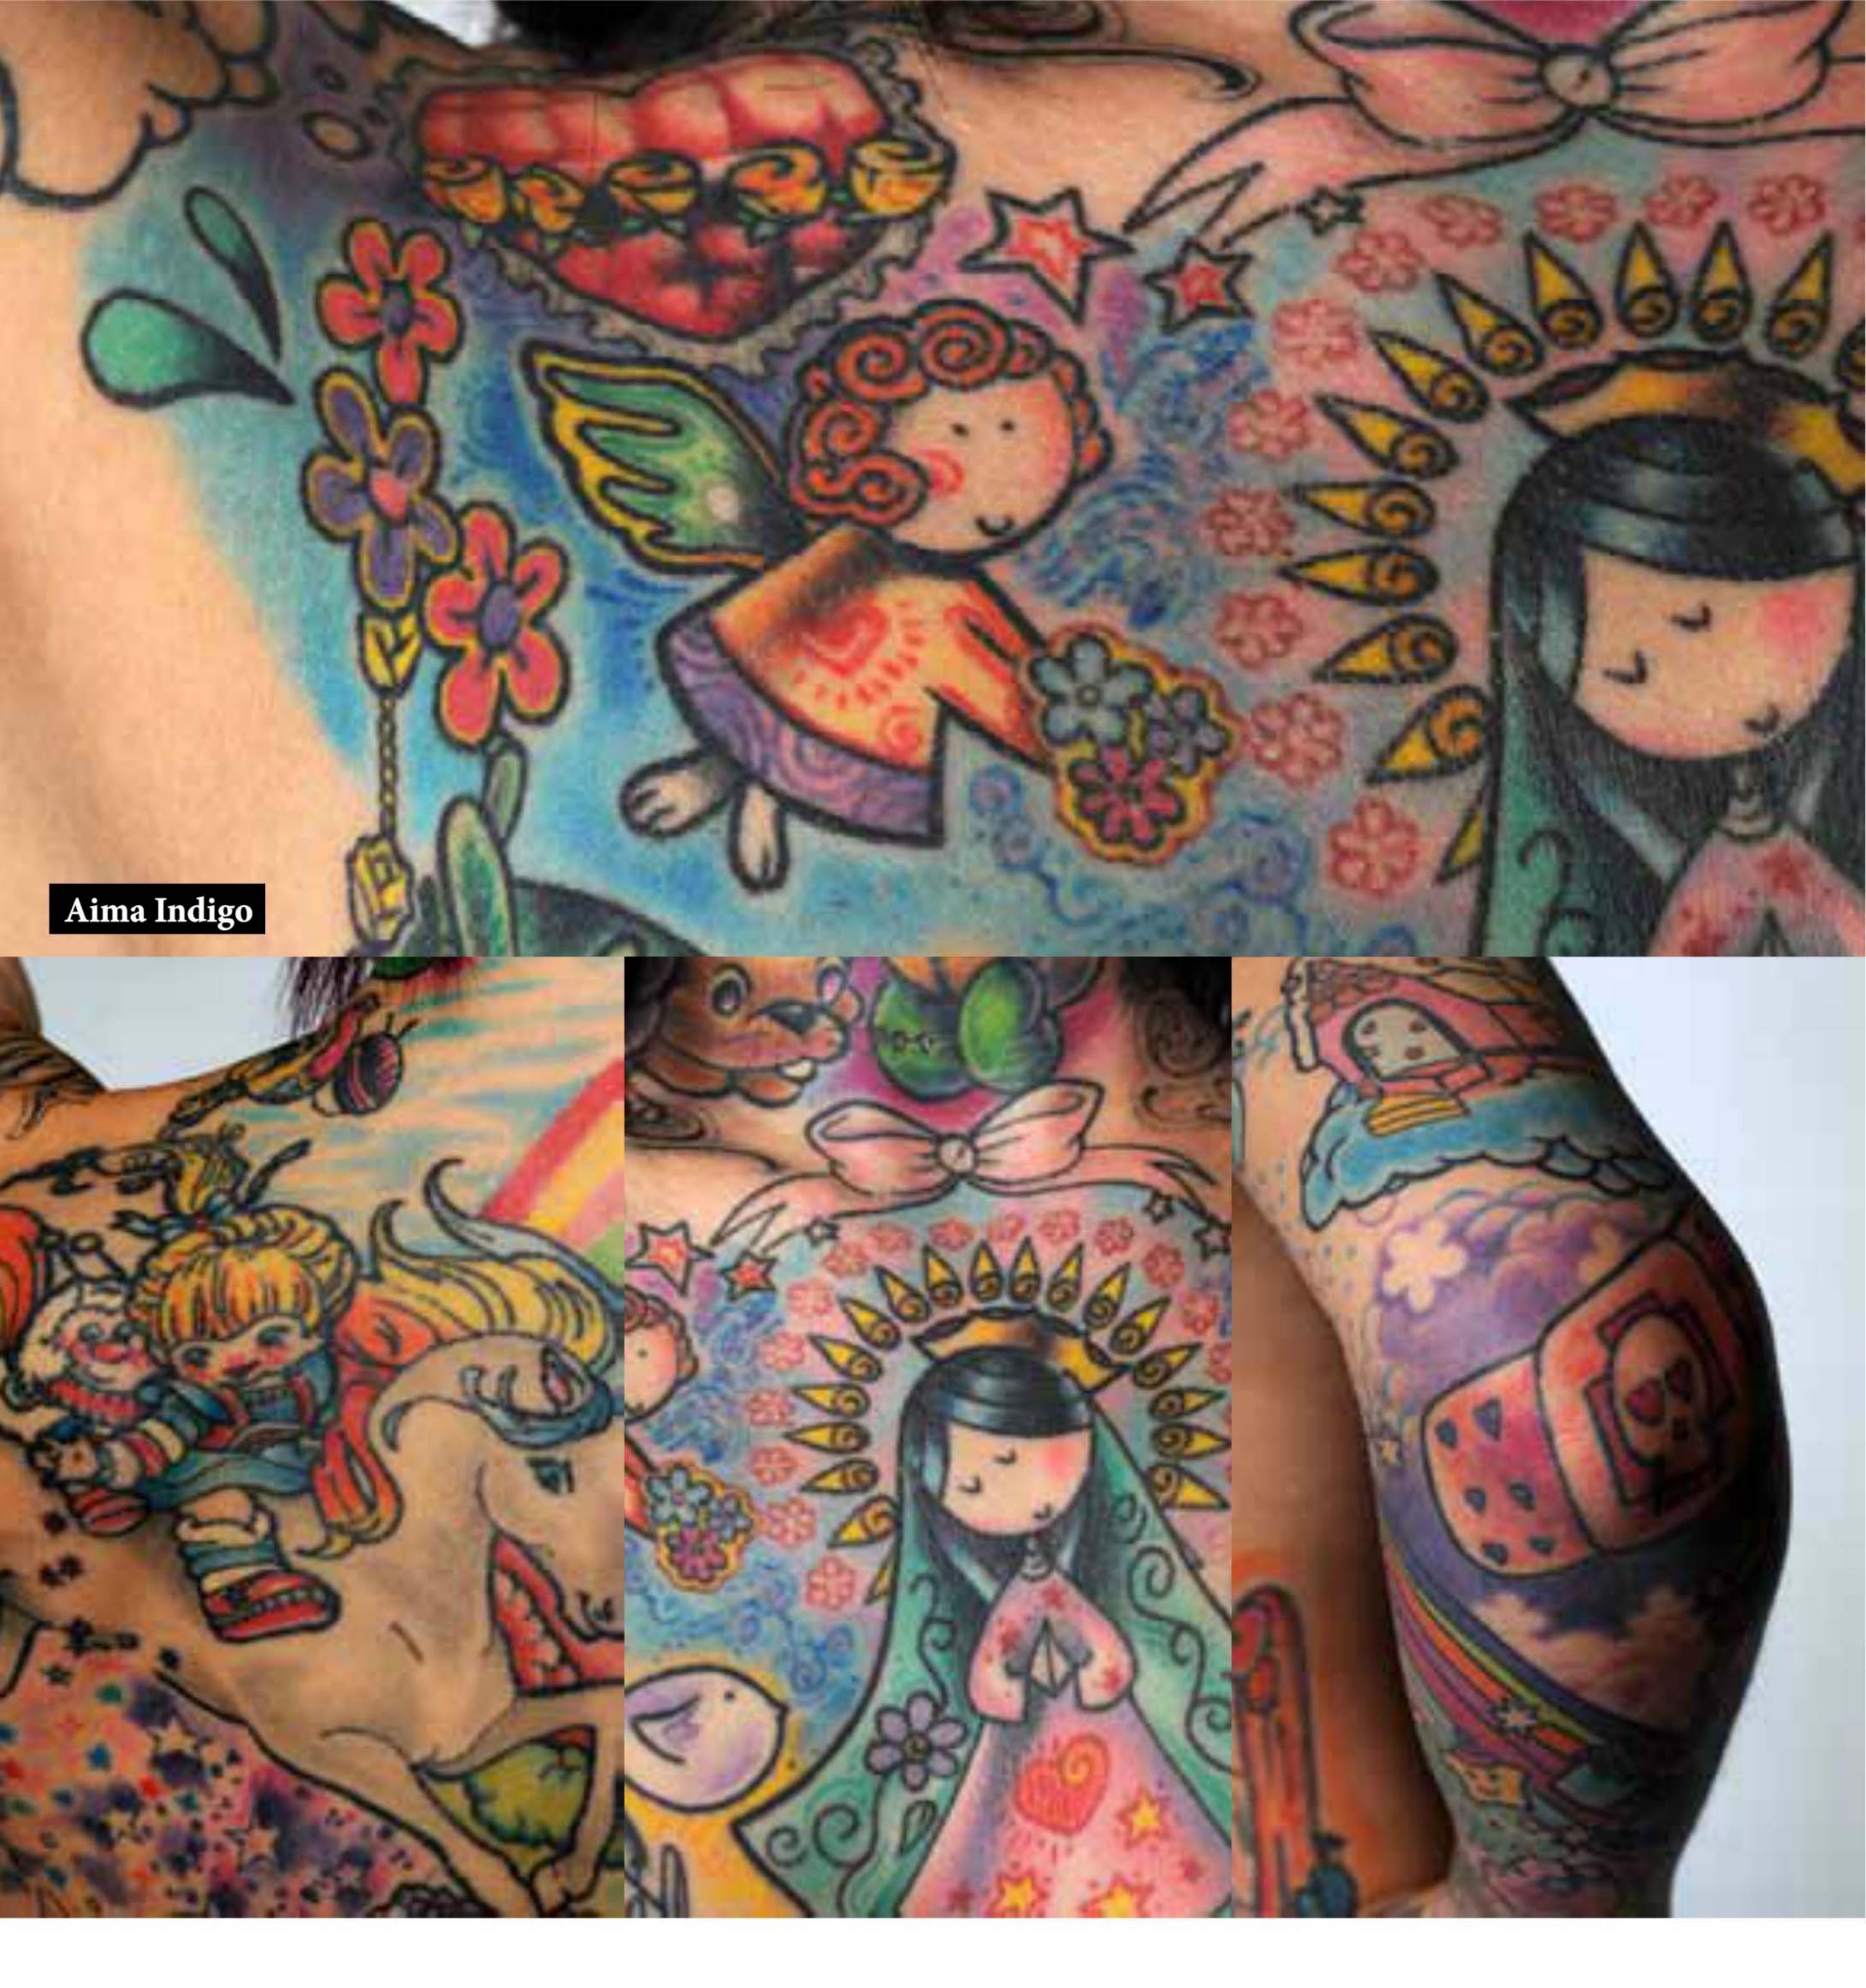

Are you a high heels or trainers girl?

High heels all the way... and an incredible weapon in disguise!!!

Who would be your ideal housemate?

I have them already... Ange and Yan (they also love my bunnies).

How long have you been with Dark Arts and how did you come to work with them?

I have been with Dark Arts since the beginning and before that when it was under a different name. And I have no idea how it happened actually! Too long ago to remember!

Who is your favourite model from Dark Arts?

Erm out of the girls i really like the look of Jemmy Jerkoff... I like that she has her face tattooed - shows dedication to the lifestyle. And from the boys Cage-13/Oli Spiers... but then he is a friend of mine too, but so talented with latex it's crazy!

If you could be one superhero who would it be? Poison Ivy...

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do? Eat lots of cake and take advantage of my power to seduce hot boys...

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

...'if it aint no fun it aint no life'

Photographer: Francois Boutemy of Simulacra Studio, London (www.simulacrastudio.com)

Name: Leah Debrincat Location: London

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

Creative type, living in London and loving it. I work as a performer/model and also as a freelance artist. I started in the entertainment industry in my late teens as a SFX makeup artist and performed in my spare time as a dancer. I didn't really think a career in performing would be possible until recent years, same goes for modelling work. And now I really enjoy the variety - one day i could be booked for an advert or shoot for a magazine and the next performing for cabaret show, corporate job, tattoo convention etc.

How would you describe your style?

Black leather jacket, red lips, quiff hair.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Yes I dance and take classes when I can in various styles. Painting is also a big passion of mine.

So how can a guy impress you?

Good sense of humour, style and act like a gentleman.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

Someone who is confident, not arrogant!

How many tattoos and piercings do you have?

Full sleeves, back piece which extends onto right leg to the ankle. Large rib piece... hmm I guess one large tattoo then.

Who would be your ideal housemate?

Easy going, no slobs! Erm Ryan gosling, just saying.

How long have you been with Dark Arts and how did you come to work with them?

Not been with them that long, but I was recommended to them by a friend.

Who is your favourite model from Dark Arts?

There are too many hotties to narrow it down to just one, sorry:(

If you could be one superhero who would it be?

Rogue from Xmen, shes very cool!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Thanks for reading my interview, you can check out more info here www.leahdebrincat.com xx

Name: KayKay Sakura

Age: 20

Location: Birmingham

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I'm KayKay, based in the West Midlands. I started the industry by doing self-portraits, then I got asked if I fancied working with this amazing photographer (Holly Knowles), and I honestly couldn't turn down the opportunity and went from there.

How would you describe your style?

My style is a mixture of indie to alternative to urban; I don't particularly like to stick to one style.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I've a big soft spot for photography: I'm currently doing a personal project which I can't wait to show off once I get started on it.

So how can a guy impress you?

A guy can impress me by just talking, making eyecontact and smiling. And by talking, I mean him telling me pretty much everything I need to know about him, and he doesn't just keep to questioning about my modelling.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

Facial hair, and the side smile. That works for me every-time.

How many tattoos and piercings do you have?

I only have the one piercing, which is hidden (septum). And I have 7 tattoos in total.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl?

Normal day-to-day, I wear flats (I only own two pairs of trainers). But I do own over 20 pairs of heels.

Who would be your ideal housemate?

Someone who can make me laugh, be there for me if I need a shoulder to cry on; who's extremely easygoing.

How long have you been with Dark Arts and how did you come to work with them?

I've been with them since I was 18, so nearly 3 years. I actually found them by just looking for an alternative agency, I wouldn't think I'd ever get the chance to be on their books, but I think I was extremely lucky.

Who is your favourite model from Dark Arts?

There are quite a few models on their books, so it's hard to really point out my ultimate favourite and there's quite a few of them I've worked alongside with. However in all honesty, they're all awesome!

If you could be one superhero who would it be?

Storm, only because Halle Berry looks awesome with her silver hair and it'd be fun to rain on some-one's parade...

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do?

I probably shouldn't be trusted in giving me the possibility in being in charge of Elite for a week. There probably be nothing for the next issue, or there could just be loads more tits!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Keep being awesome, and if you get the chance; check out Dark Arts Agency!;)

The First of the Dark Arts Girls To Feature is... NANCY HARRY!

Age: 23

Location: Cardiff, Wales

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

Hiya! I'm from sunny Cardiff born and bred. I started off modelling about 3 years ago. The reason I started was because I used to be in a punk/grunge band called Drop Dead Darlin, I was the front woman. It was loads of fun, but we split up and so from there I started modelling - it kind of just fell into my lap really, but I've had loads of fun since! =D

How would you describe your style?

Hmm, there can be a few things mixed in to be honest, but I've always loved the punk and skinhead style, but some days I can look like a right goth lol, but usually I just look like a gypsy haha.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Yeah loads, tattoos obviously! I love travelling and want to try and go to as many different places as possible now. Next trip is Mexico for the day of the dead festival with my boy! I do pole dancing for fitness which is lots of fun! I love music and I'm trying to start another band, so fingers crossed you'll see me on the stage soon!

So how can a guy impress you?

Hmm he has to be funny, and treat a girl right. Also, my boyfriend impressed me with his beard... all about the beard, haha.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Tattoos.

How many tattoos and piercings do you have?

I have a few piercings, can't really count my tattoos... it's all turning into one big one!

Are you a high heels or trainers girl?

A bit of both really, but more of a doc martens girl;)

Who would be your ideal housemate?

A butler haha:)

How long have you been with Dark Arts and how did you come to work with them?

I've been with them a while now! I knew Asha first from the beginning and I applied and she accepted! Yay!

Who is your favourite model from Dark Arts?

Aww how could you ask that? They're all awesome and majorly talented!

If you could be one superhero who would it be?

I'd rather be a baddie...
Poison Ivy all the way!

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do?

Hmm, I would throw one huge Elite party haha:)

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Thanks to everyone for all the support over the years. I'm so grateful and thanks for reading! <3

Hey! Thanks very much! It's great to be back in :) I'm a model from down south, and I've recently moved to Brighton :) don't remember exactly how I got into the industry, but have worked hard to get where I am now and still working hard to get where I want to be!

How would you describe your style?

I don't really have a certain style, I just wear what I want, I don't follow a trend or anything, if I like something, I'll wear it, simples:)

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Music! And art! I couldn't live without music! I've started learning how to DJ recently actually so you might see my name next to delta hevy or camo and krooked soon! Ha I wish.

NOTONX

Name: Helene Atsuko

Age: 25

Location: Southampton

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

Hi! I'm Helene Atsuko, otherwise known as Panda! I am currently based in Southampton but grew up in the sunny seaside town of Brighton. I have always had a tendency towards the alternative and the bizarre. As a teenager I was the odd looking nerdy kid sat on her own and never really felt like I fitted in till I discovered the alt and fetish scenes. From then on I was immersed into an alternative haven and felt far more comfortable in a pair of platform boots and adorned by brightly coloured hair than I had ever done before.

Once I'd finished University, a friend of mine asked if I wanted to come to a group shoot with her. Never having really thought about modeling I thought it would be a laugh at the very least. It turned out I was a natural in front of the camera (much to my own surprise!) and I began to build up my portfolio, enjoying the artistic creativity it gave me. I guess it all kind of developed from there really, after a lot of hard work, my modeling progressed and grew, and with it the paid work started to come in. With this my confidence grew and I never looked back! I couldn't imagine my life without modeling, all the places I have visited, the amazing friends I have made, and creative images I have worked on make it all so rewarding.

How would you describe your style?

Quirky! I went through the 'goth' phase, the 'grunge' phase and the 'cyber/industrial' phase as a teenage, doesn't everyone?! Now I am an eclectic mix of elements I like and have altered from these. Day to day people probably wouldn't recognize me, as I spend most of my time either in pjs (when I don't have to leave the house) or in gym gear (I cycle a lot). If I had to describe myself in a sentence, I'd say my style is pixie, punky and panda, with added latex and heels at night!

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

This was my fourth time working with Julian. We have built up such a great working relationship that it hardly feels like work! The whole day is filled with laughs, tea and a great collaborative artistic vision.

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

Getting to wear exciting and unseen new latex designs definitely!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

Alongside modeling I have a love for ballet, running, cycling, yoga and roller derby. I like to keep active! I have also just finished an MSc in Archaeological Computing and love being a computer nerd. I hope to complete my PHd too, but don't worry, I won't be giving up the modeling!

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be and why?

Hmm. Don't think I'd want to be a person... I'd quite like to be a Cat though! Sleeping, chilling and eating, with no worries in the world!

if you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do?

I would devote an issue to Tea Appreciation! Hot chicks with tea. Beautiful tattooed men with tea. Everyone loves tea! I think it would be a hit :D

What's your dream job?

I am already on my way I'd like to think! I just want to keep working hard at modeling, making new friends, discovering new places. In the long run, when I get on to the too old side for modeling, I would love to lecture in Archaeology or Digital Humanities. I want to be able to inspire people, both through modeling and my academic work, and to leave a lasting impression.

So how can a guy impress you?

Be able to hold a conversation with me! Don't make me do all the talking, or the chasing! Have something to say for yourself, and just be true to yourself.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? I have a thing for voluptuous lips, and men in latex!

Do you have any tattoos or piercings?

I have had about 35 piercings thus far, but many of them don't remain. Some didn't heal correctly, others I grew out of. Currently I have about 18, some visible, some not;) I have a few tattoos here and there and I am currently getting my left sleeve tattooed and my head also in the next month. Really looking forward to covering myself in more ink! I don't have anywhere near enough at the moment.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl? Trainers by day, heels by night!

Who would be your ideal housemate? I already have the bestest housemate in the world ^_^ She is like my adopted big sister!

What's the worst idea you have ever had?

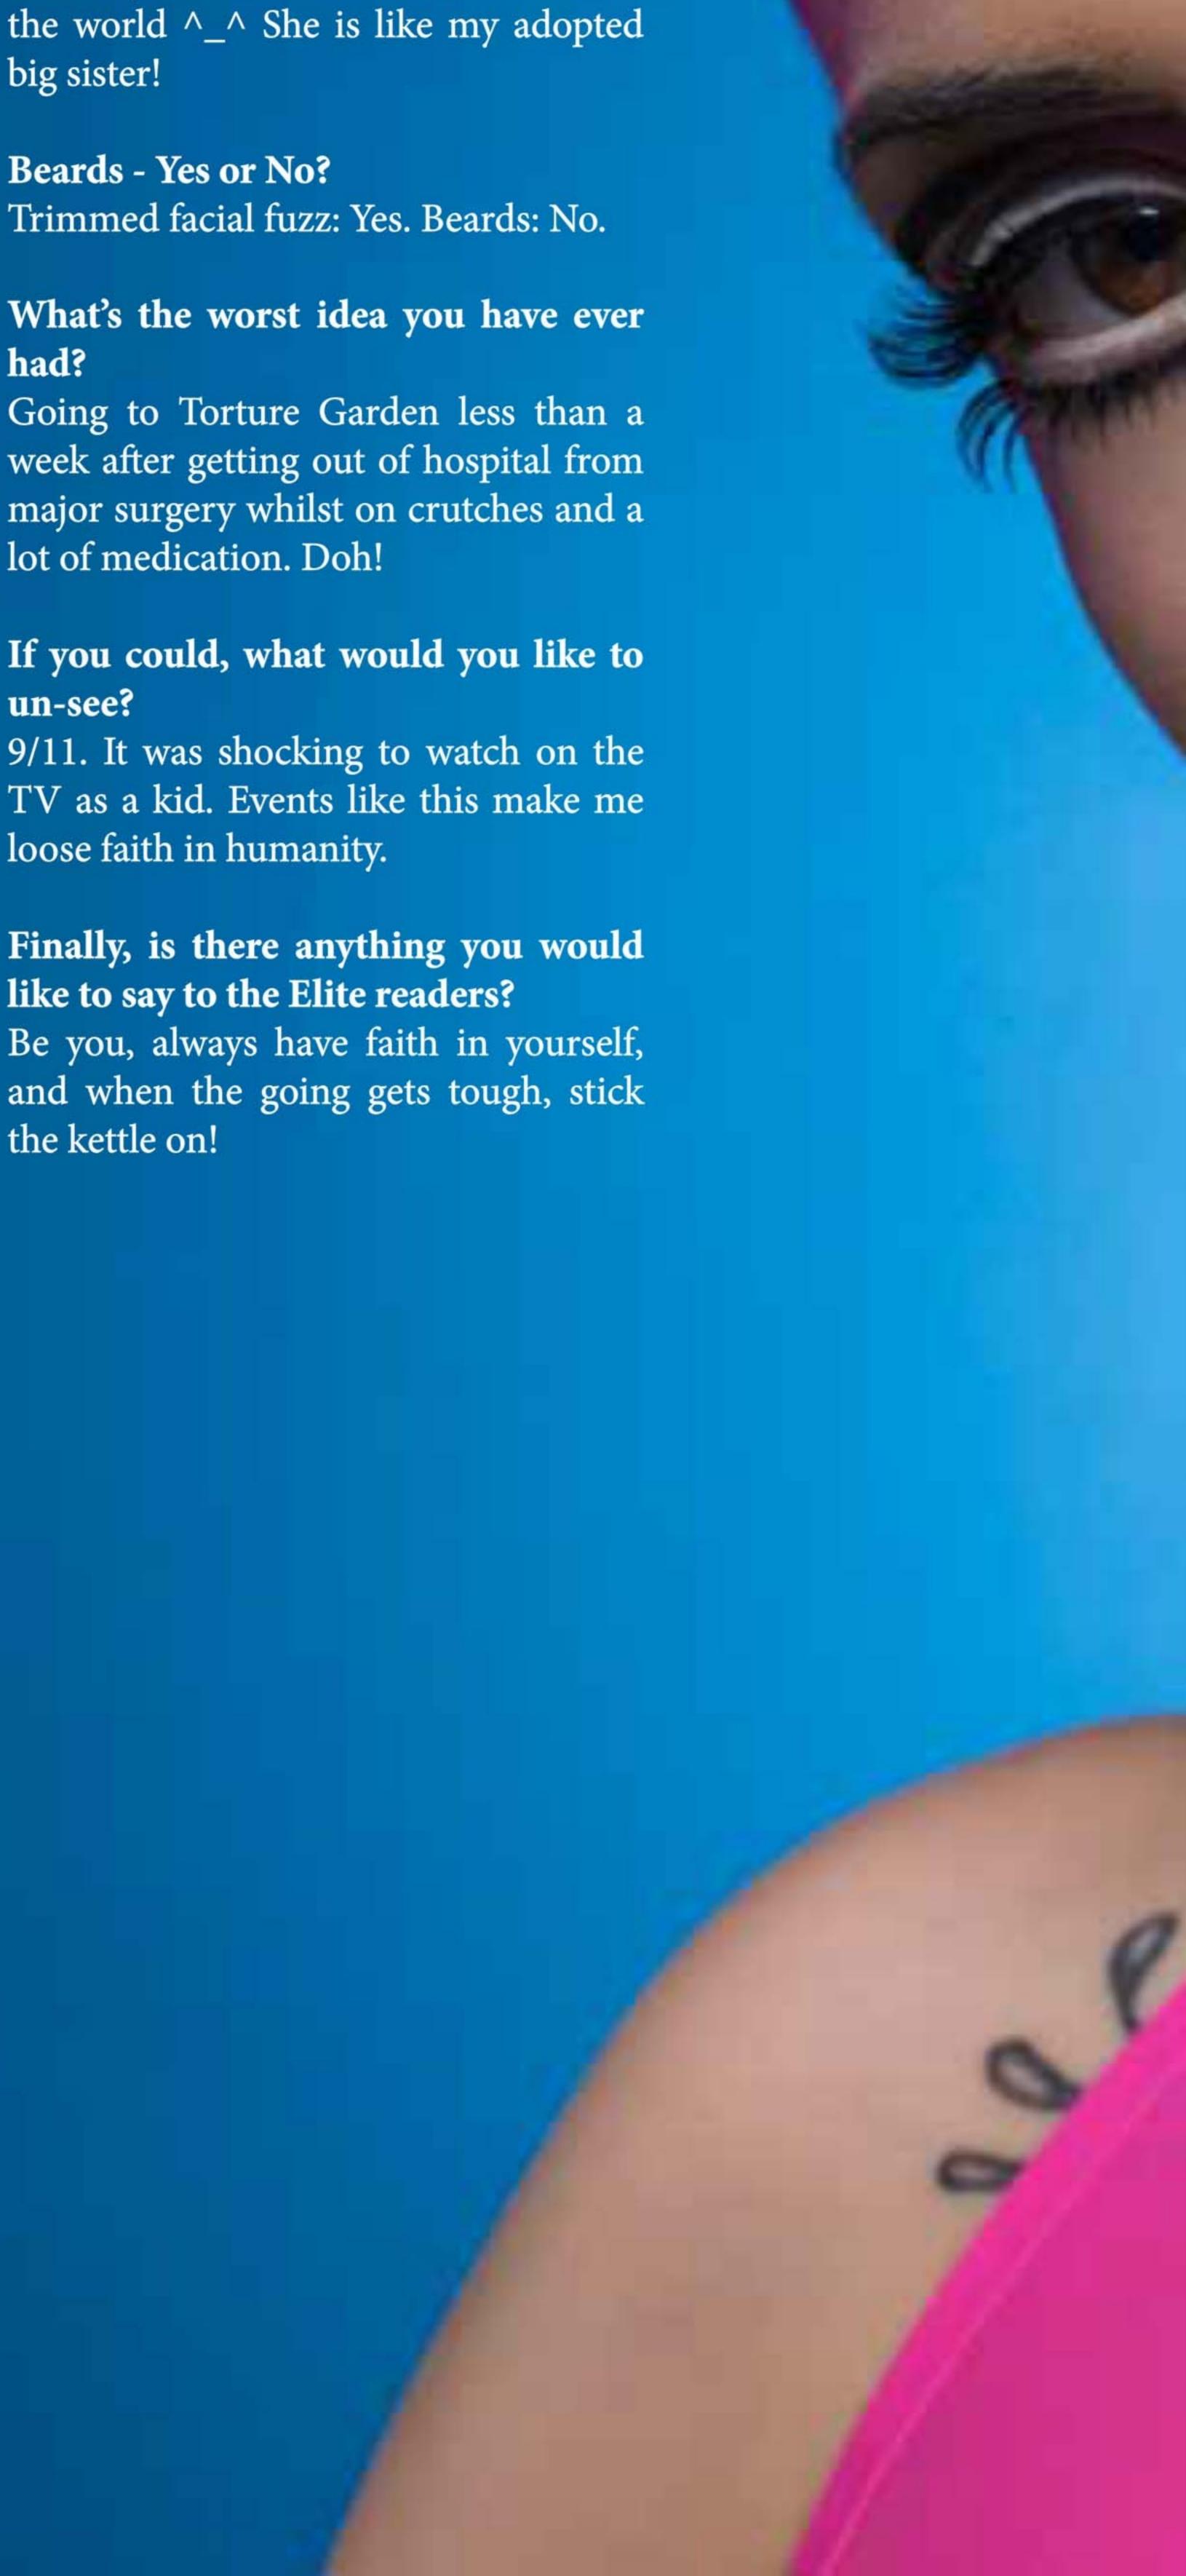

week after getting out of hospital from major surgery whilst on crutches and a

If you could, what would you like to 9/11. It was shocking to watch on the TV as a kid. Events like this make me loose faith in humanity.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Be you, always have faith in yourself, and when the going gets tough, stick the kettle on!

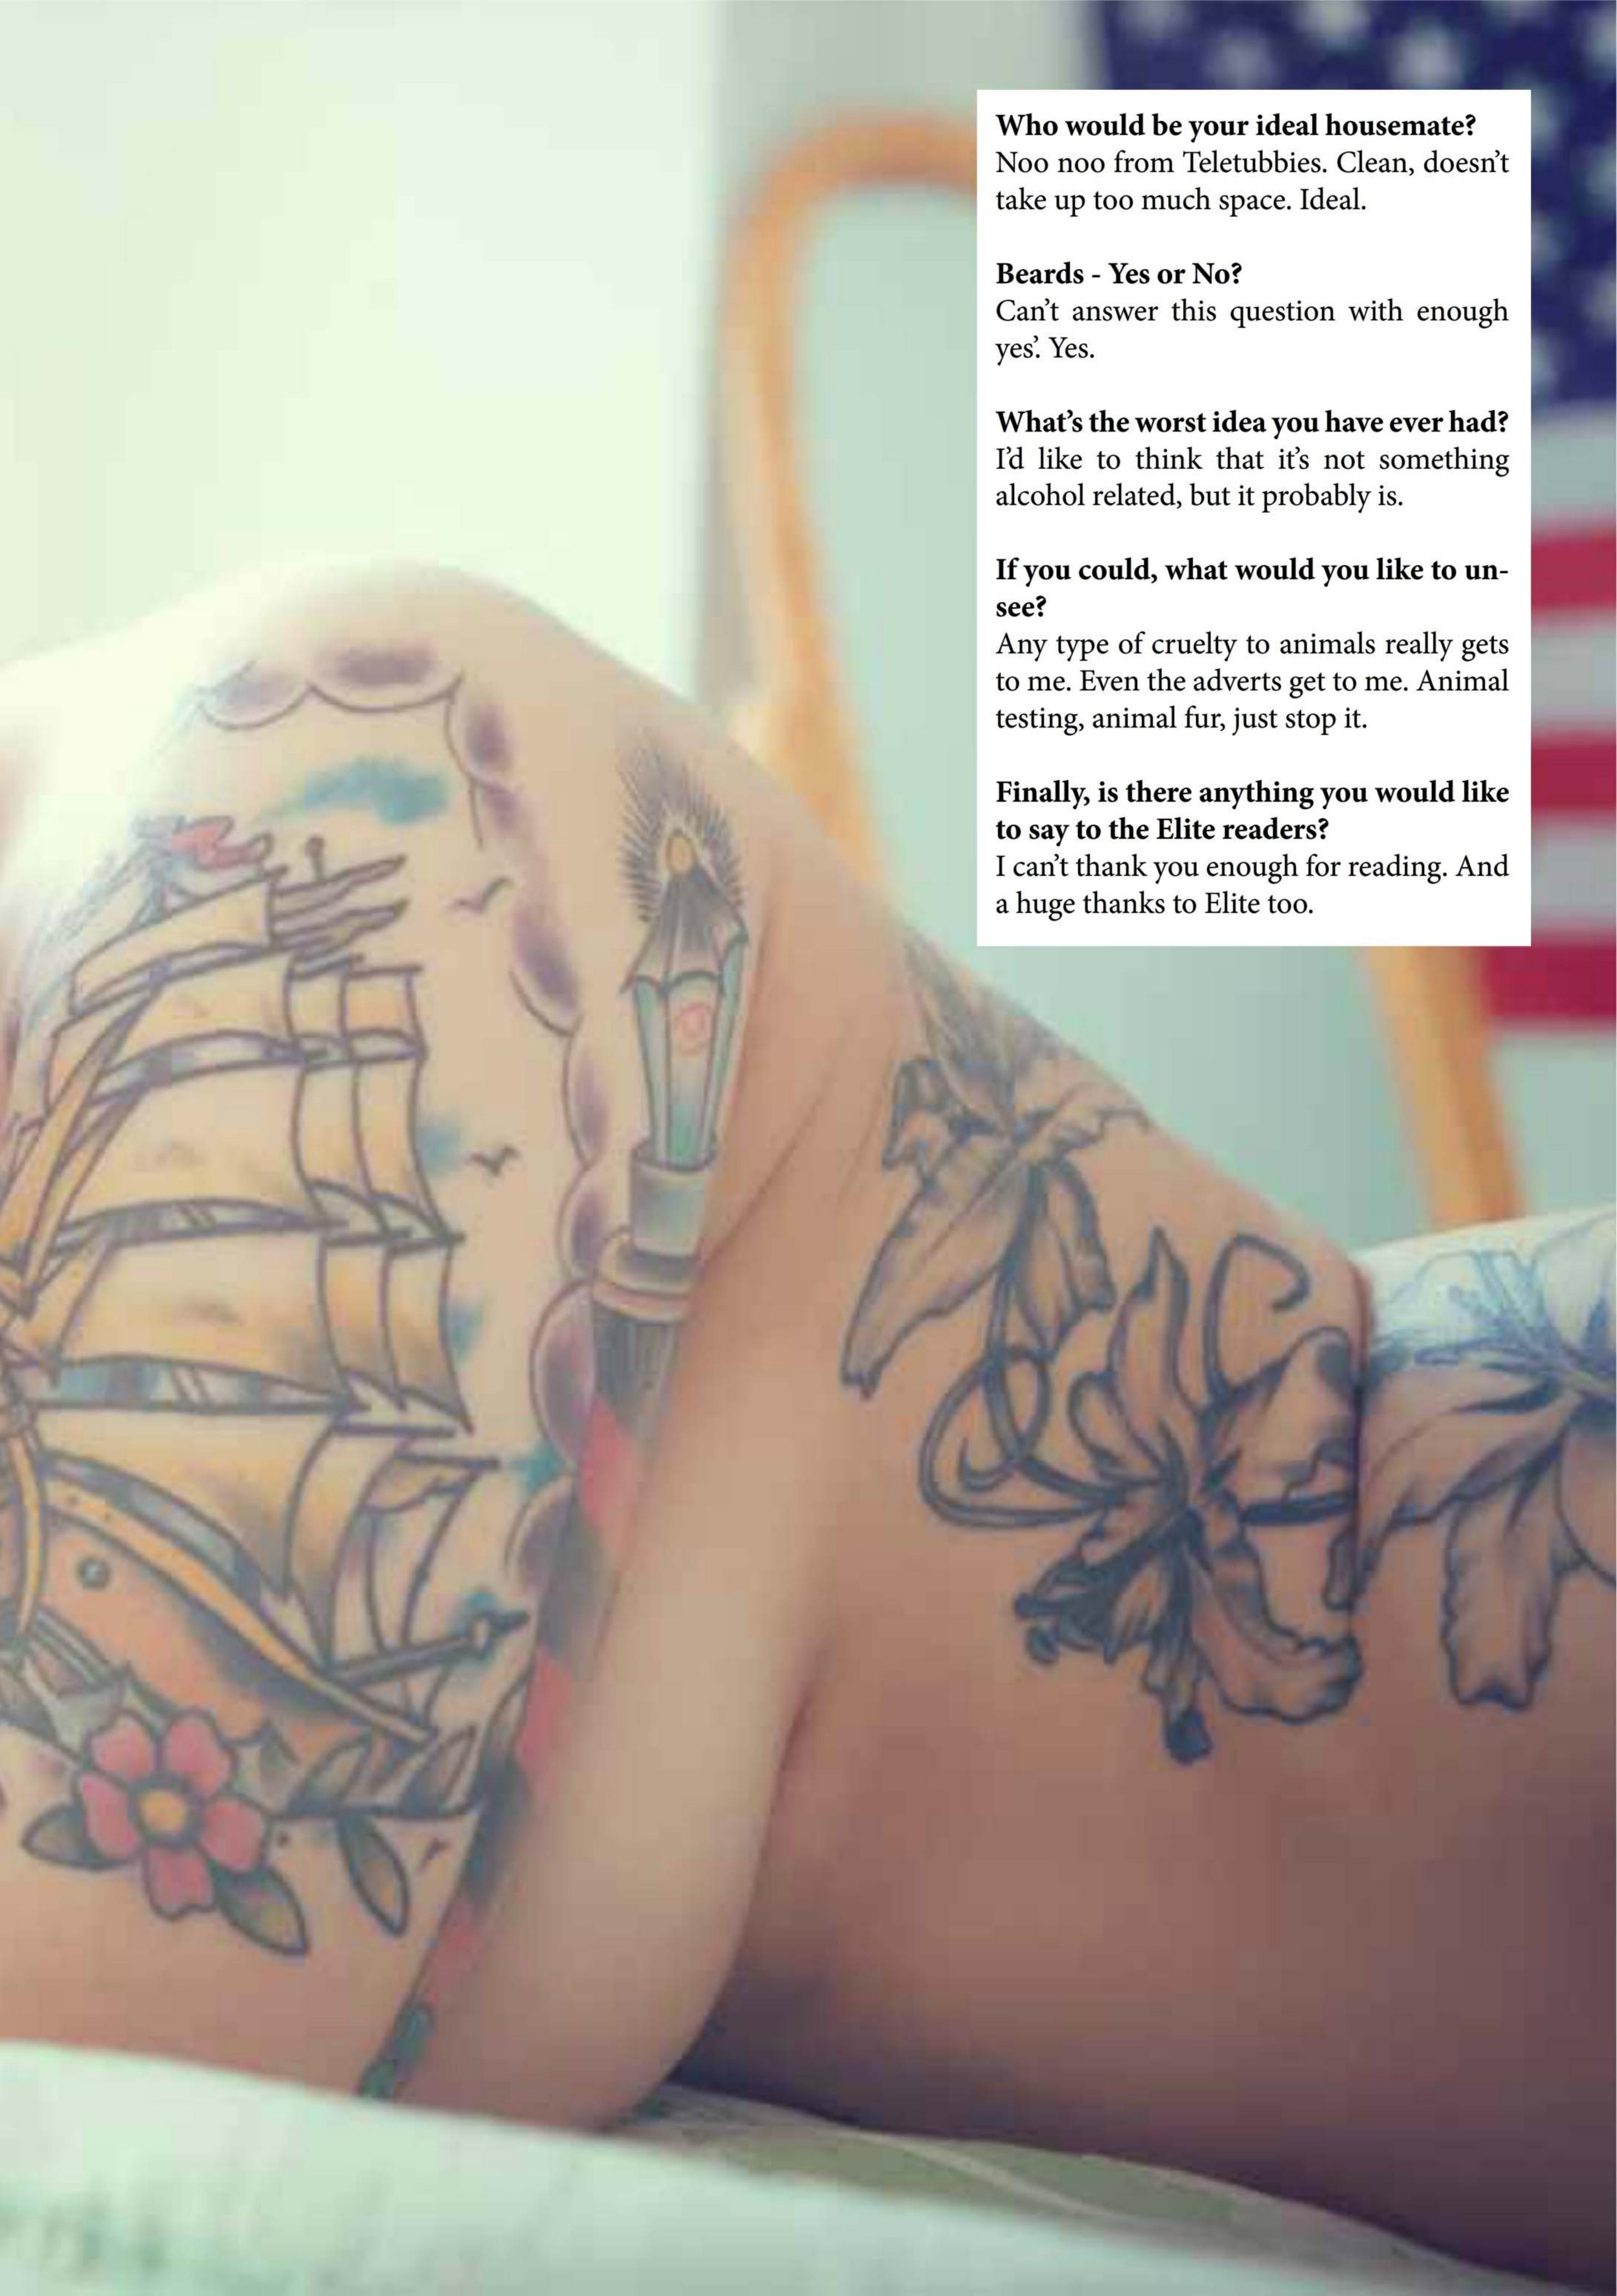

Vaudou

Location:

Northampton

So tell us all about Vaudou Jewellery:

Vaudou specialise in creepy/cute jewellery and accessories for girls and boys of all ages at realistic, affordable prices. Creating unique and wearable pieces for dressing up or dressing down and taking custom commissions for special occasions.

Why did you start working on this brand?

I've always been a huge fan of making/customising my own clothes and have done since I was in school. I loved the feeling of being able to wear something unique and wanted to translate that into something practical and something I was good at - making jewellery/accessories. I would always see pieces in high-street shops but be put off my sky high prices or seeing the same element over and over again. I wanted to be able to design items giving people what they want, at affordable prices, but with a unique twist. More often than not I will only make one of certain items, so you're nearly always sure to get one-off piece.

Where do you get your best inspiration from? Fashion lookbooks, high street shops, celebrities - everywhere.

So out of all your work what are your personal favourites?

The Bambi Earrings, the Black Cross Earrings, and my moon bracelets! They're so cute. And of course the floral headbands which are my most popular product!

So do you have anything new that you are working on, that you would like to share with the Elite readers?

I am constantly making new pieces and aim to make at least 3 new items each week. The easiest way to keep up with updates and see new releases is to keep up with Vaudou on Facebook and Twitter! I also always have new and exciting collaborations with models and photographers coming out monthly.

Molestayes

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

Well my name is Violeteyes, I'm a performer and model and do a lot of work in the fetish genre. I'm usually clad in latex and tottering round in high heels so it's nice to be wearing more 'normal' and less restrictive clothing today! I started out when I was scouted at 16 but it was a high fashion agency and at 16 I'd already discovered Bettie Page (and stockings, corsets etc) and didn't really find the high fashion aspect appealing, I carried on with my education and at University a friend studying photography asked me to pose for her, the pictures ended up online and things snowballed form there and I haven't really looked back since!

How would you describe your style?

I was once described as the inked up love child of Jessica Rabbit and Marilyn Manson - I liked that so I'm sticking with that!

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

So much fun, Graeme was lovely and put me at ease straight away. As I said before a lot of my work is predominately fetish so it was a welcome change to do something new, Graeme's a great guy and he knows how to ask you to get naked without sounding sleazy:)

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I do a lot of work with homeless people so it's nice to put something back into the community by doing that but I do usually come home smelling of cabbage for some reason after a day helping out around the hostels etc, oh and I recently discovered beer pong - How I've survived so long without playing is a mystery but it's my new favourite game!

What is the naughtiest thing you do?

That would be telling. I'm an experienced fetish model... I'll leave you to your imagination.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you?

Make me laugh, nice teeth and good shoes! I'm not high maintenance in the slightest, but a nice smile is a must!

Do you have any tattoos or piercings?

I have both ears currently stretched to 20mm, I have full back piece, my ribs on my right side are covered, my right arm has a full sleeve (including my armpit), the back of my neck, both feet and I'm just starting a full sleeve on my left arm - I'm having an old tattoo lazered off as well which bloody hurts! Lesson learned - make sure it's what you want before you get inked because getting them removed hurts and definitely costs more than having ink put on!

Beards - Yes or No?

Yes! I love beards, there's something about a beard that makes a man a man - for me anyway!

What's the worst idea you have ever had?

Skinny dipping in the river at the bottom of my street and trusting my friends not to say 'you go first and run off with my clothes'... I went first and they ran off with my clothes!

If you could, what would you like to unsee?

Ghost Rider- worst film ever!

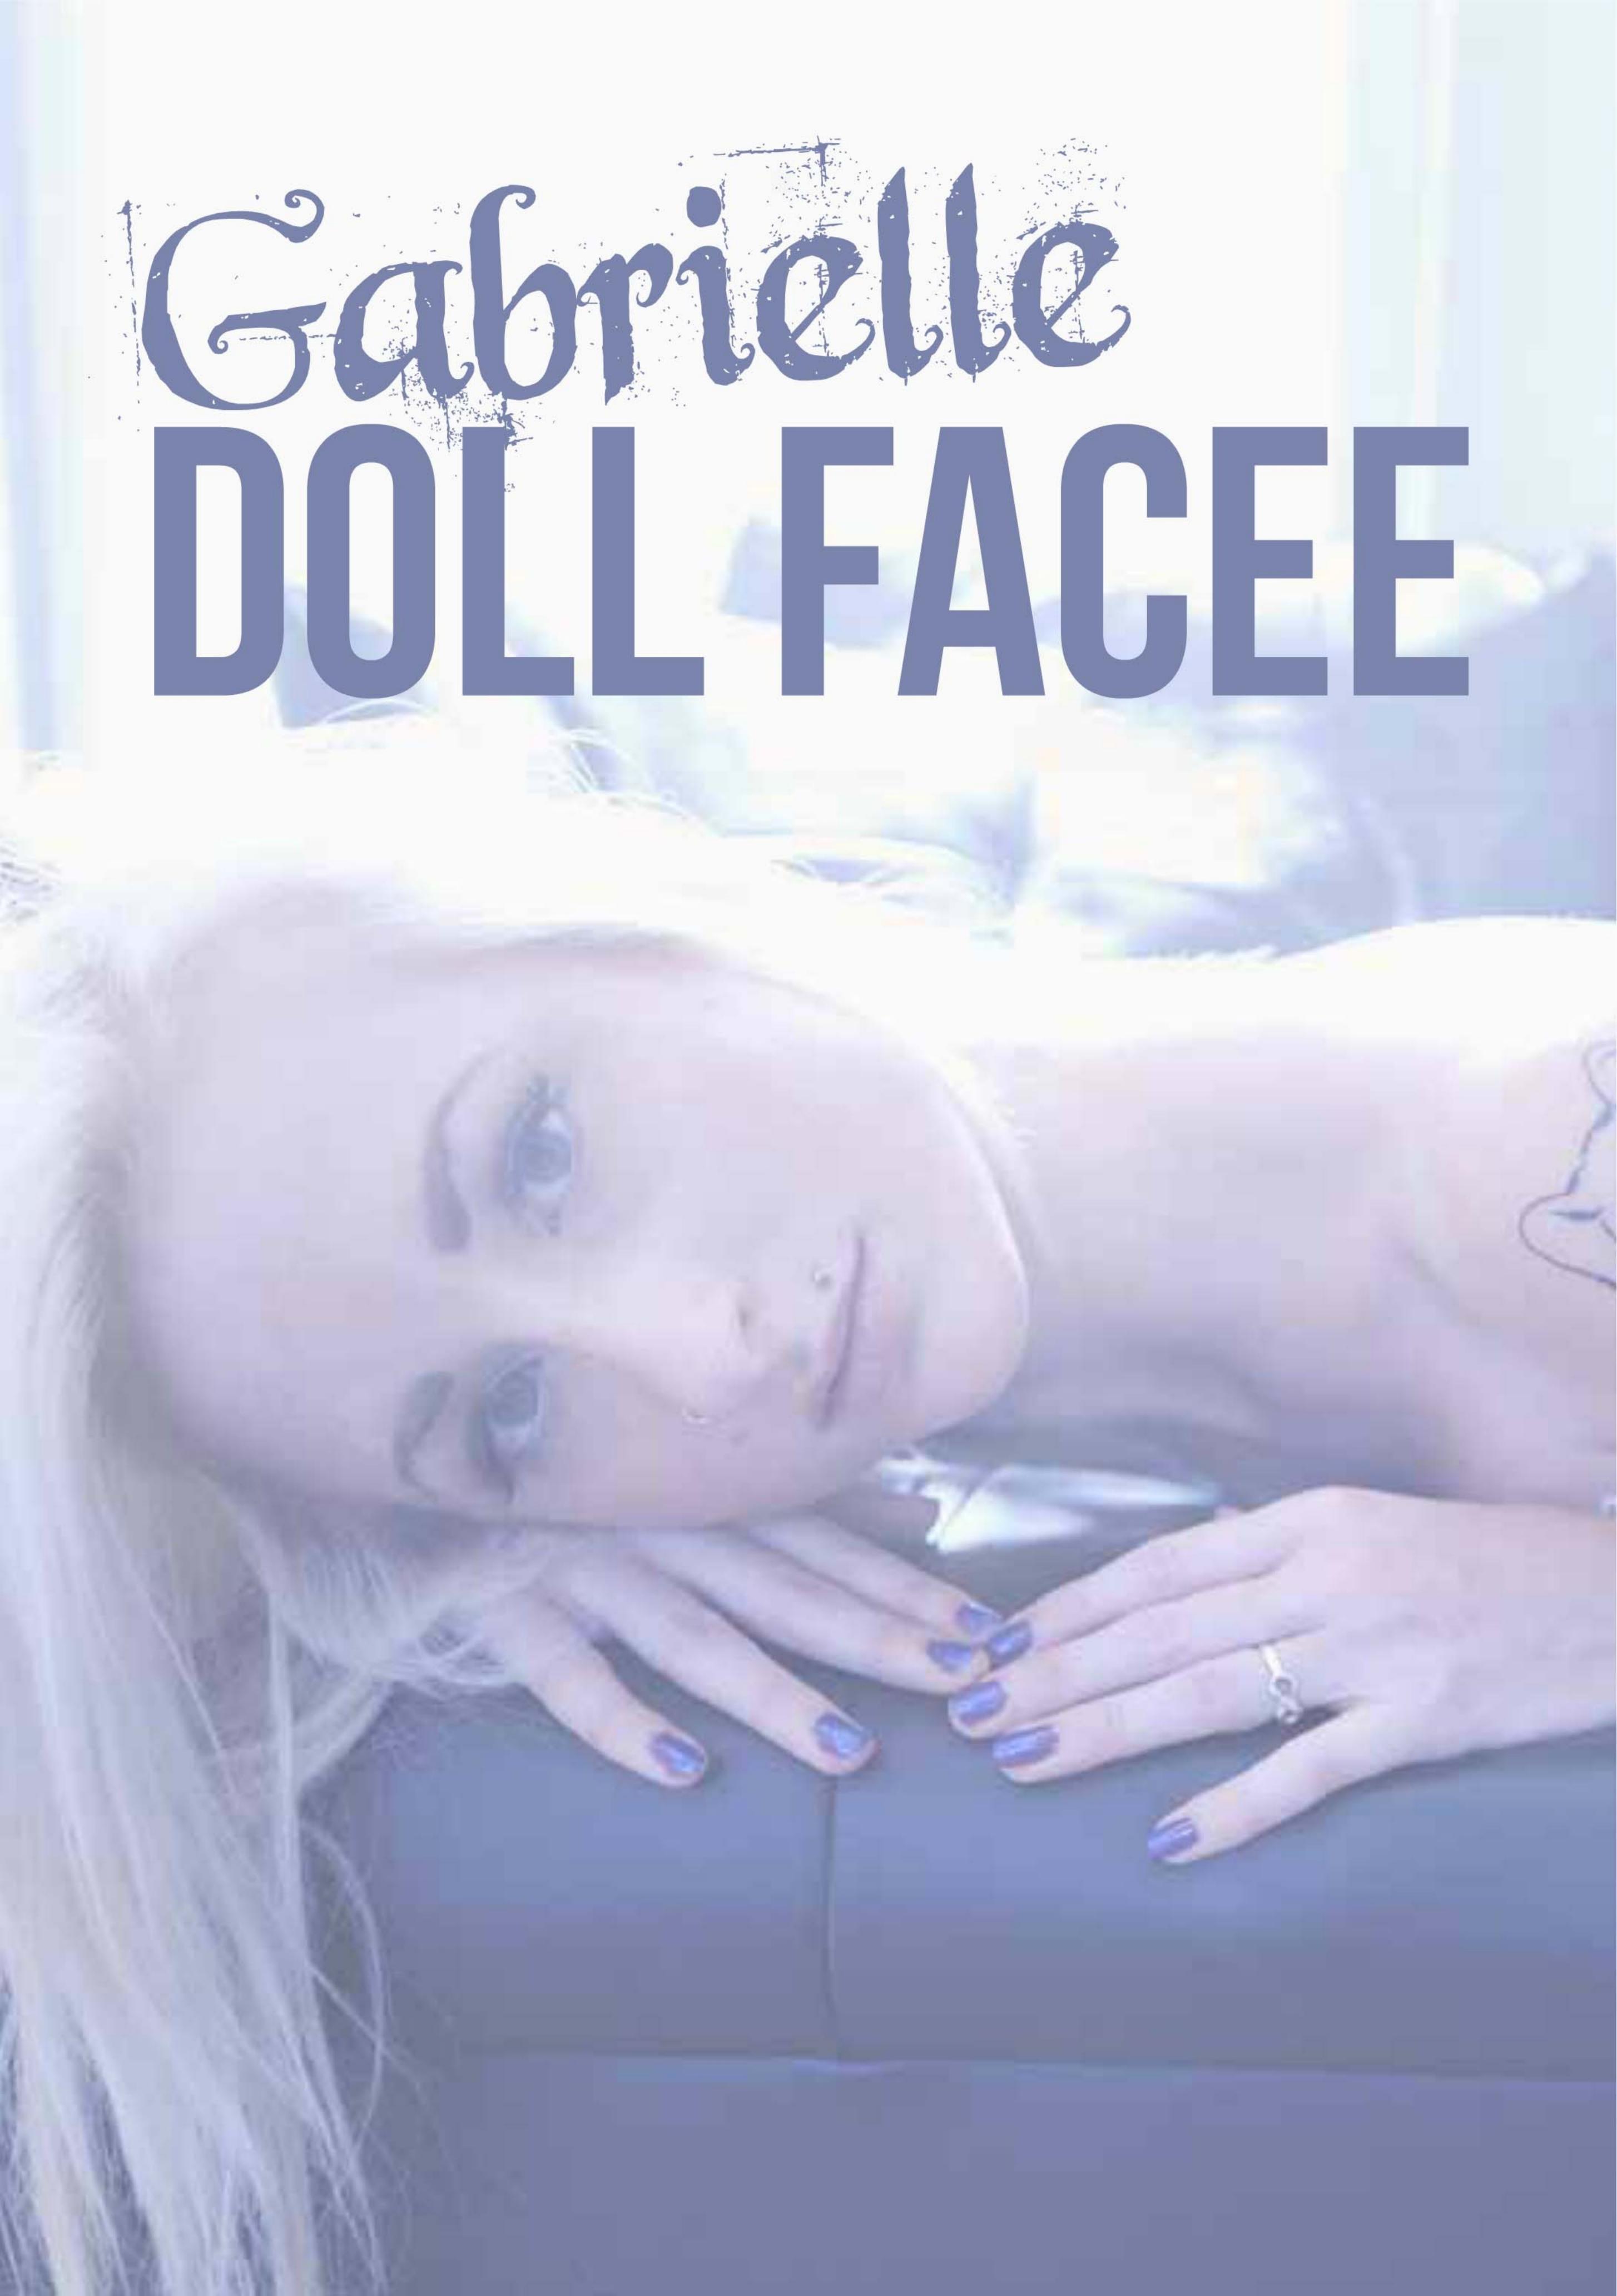

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

The Krispey Kremes...

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers?

Thanks for reading and if by any chance you do want to know more check out my website at www.violeteyes.co.uk

Age: 21

Location: Brighton

Hi, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I'm a fire-breathing, pole dancing, angle grinding Cyanide Girl as well as a alternative model. I live in Brighton and LOVE being by the sea:) I got started in modelling by wearing my friends bands t-shirts then it escalated from there! I went to University and graduated with a degree in Advertising & Brand Communication, while I was there I learnt firebreathing from my housemate and decided to make my own awesome group.

How would you describe your style?

I like a bit of everything. Some days I'll feel geeky and keep my specs on or I'll feel sexy and wear ripped jeans, I guess it depends on my mood. If it was socially acceptable to go around in your underwear that would be perfect.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot?

I think Billy is a great Photographer! I've worked with him before and we always have fun coming up with ideas.

What was your favourite part of the shoot? Being in front of the camera! Haha! We go through outfits and come up with cute and sexy ideas as we match things up, the whole process is fun!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I love performing! I don't do it to look sexy or the girl everyone wants, I do it because I love the adrenaline and showing everyone some cool talents.

So how can a guy impress you?

To impress a chick do the helicopter dick - Haha sorry (If anyone gets that I'll love them!) By being funny and charming. The 'cool-guy'/hard-to-get' types are fun, but there's something about a guy who can make you laugh and keep you intrigued. Some one who doesn't have to try to be anyone else, who are just comfortable in their own skin. It would also help if he had tattoos.

What is the naughtiest thing you do?

I love being a tease. I can't help it in a way, but it's so much fun! He'll want you more and more, having a guy wanting you so much is sexy.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? My neck. Kissing, biting. It should be flashing a "WARNING" sign on it...

Do you have any tattoos or piercings?

I have a fair few I have collected over the years. I would say which ones I have but you can see them in the pictures! I don't regret any of them and I plan to get a lot more!

Are you a high heels or trainers girl?

Both! Trainers when you are chilling out and heels when you are going out. There's something about heels that make legs look amazing. Plus the extra height I get is good as I'm a short-ass. I love shoes in general, I have over 100 pairs.
